

A. C. Swain

October 23, 1940 - July 14, 2025

Born on October 23, 1940, in Talladega, Alabama, Mr. A. C. Swain was the cherished son of Archie Swain and Sadie Mae Lindsey Swain and a proud member of a large family, being one of thirteen siblings.

Mr. Swain's journey through life was one marked by unwavering commitment to both his family and his faith. From an early age at Kingston Missionary Baptist Church, he embodied a spirit of dedication that would illuminate the lives of others. Though he received a formal education limited to the eighth grade, he pursued a fruitful career as a machinist in the textile industry and cultivated a deep-seated passion for working as an auto mechanic, where his talents and hard work flourished.

Mr. A. C. Swain, fondly known to family and friends as "Uncle Monkey" and "Big Guy," passed peacefully into eternal rest on July 14, 2025 while in the comfort of his home surrounded by loved ones, leaving behind a legacy of love, faith, and resilience that will forever echo in the hearts of those who were fortunate to know him. In reflection of his vibrant life, we take comfort in knowing Mr. Swain joins his beloved wife, Betty Strawn Swain, as well as his parents Archie and Sadie Swain, brothers, Archie Lee (Juanita) Swain, K.C. Swain, and Perry Swain, sisters, Rubertha Swain Dates Thompson and Vertise Swain, and brother-in-law, Samuel Cody who preceded him in death. Their reunion provides comfort, as the heavens open their gates to welcome a truly gentle soul home.

As we gather to celebrate his life, we will remember Mr. Swain's infectious laughter, his compassionate heart, and his remarkable ability to bring joy to those around him. His devotion was not just to his work but to the well-being of his family. He is fondly remembered by his loving daughter, Cordelia Duncan Jordan; his beloved grandson, Cornelius Jordan; and his treasured great-grandchildren, Keiston Brooks, Journee Jordan, Raelyn Groce, and Kaeden Groce. He is also survived by his two devoted sisters, Bernice Swain Cody and Joyce Swain Alford; five brothers, Willie James (Darnice) Swain, Willie L. (Dorothy) Swain, Sherry Swain, John Wesley Swain, and Roy Bernard (Eleanor) Swain; and a bonus brother, Walter Lee (Gladys) Swain, along with countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends whose lives he touched.

As we bid a fond farewell to this remarkable man, may his legacy of love, faith, and compassion resonate in our hearts, inspiring us to carry forth his spirit of kindness and joy in the days to come. In the tapestry of our lives that he helped to weave, Mr. Swain's gentle presence will forever remain.
