

Angel Swain

February 18, 1976 - April 8, 2023

Ms. Angel Swain was born on February 18, 1976, to the parentage of Gloria Swain and the late Albert Dean Graham, Jr. in Detroit, Michigan.

At a young age while residing in Detroit, Angel accepted Christ as her personal Savior. Angel received her formal education at Northwestern High School in Detroit, Michigan and later furthered her education in the medical profession in nursing. When Angel moved to Alabama, she continued serving the Lord while worshiping with Kings Chapel Church in Alpine and at the time of her passing, she was a member of New Maryland Missionary Baptist under the leadership of Pastor Eric Richardson.

Angel loved entertaining her family and friends throughout her life. She enjoyed listening to music and working word puzzles. Angel was a devoted mom who loved her children with all her heart, but most all, she really enjoyed being a grandmother to her grandchildren. Family and friends loved to be around her because it was always a good time.

Angel's life journey ended on April 8, 2023, while surrounded by loved ones in the comfort of her home. As Angel transitioned to her heavenly home, she was greeted by her two grandchildren, Donvon Swain, Jr. and Derell Swain, father, Albert Dean Graham, Jr., brother, Carlos Wilson, grandparents, Willie J. Swain, Albert Dean Graham, Sr., and Eda "Honey Pie" Graham, and brother-in-law, DeMarlo Edwards.

Angel will remain in loving memories by her two daughters: Katina Swain and Shakyra Swain; one son, Donvon Swain; one brother, Clifton Swain; loving and devoted mother, Gloria Swain; four sisters, Myukita (Francois) Swain Fontenot, Tammy Swain Edwards, Amira Swain, and Alvondeka Twyman; four grandchildren, Skylar Swain, Miracle Swain, Carson Swain, and Ny'Ari Simmons; grandmother, Mary Swain; auntie/mom, Montina Swain; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends in Michigan and Alabama.
