

Angelean McCluney

June 22, 1964 - March 7, 2023

On June 22, 1964, in Talladega, Alabama, Lawrence Carmichael and Maxine Heard Carmichael embraced the world with a beautiful baby girl who was given the name Angelean, meaning energetic, courageous, and determined; but most of all, "Beauty".

Angelean fulfilled the definition of her name to the fullest. She was determined to be a true servant of God at an early age while attending Mt. Zebulon AFM Church of God. It was then that Angelean accepted Christ as her Lord and personal Savior serving as church secretary and a faithful member for over thirty-five years. Later in life, Angelean kept her faith and belief in God when she joined worship with New Vision Fellowship Christian Church continuing her missionary mission and serving as the Sunday School Superintendent. She loved the Lord with all her heart, and nothing was going to separate her from giving him all the glory and praise when it was times for those church doors to open. She would go anywhere you wanted her to go, but she had to be home when it was time to go to church. Angelean received her formal education in the Talladega County School System and was a graduate of Lincoln High School Class of 1982. After completing high school, Angelean further her education by attending New World College and Theology School earning her paralegal degree and certification in ministry. She worked with Chalkline Sportswear several years until they closed at which time she began working as a supervisor with Pell City Cleaners for over 20 years before retiring.

As Angelean travel this 58-year journey, along the way while in high school, she found her high school sweetheart and soulmate, Mack McCluney. The two became one on February 29, 1996 when they were united in Holy Matrimony. With this blessed marriage came two loving children, Kenneth and Marshay. Angelean loved cooking for her family and friends. She also enjoyed reading, sewing, and taking photos of her grandchildren. She thought she was the best photographer when it came to the camera. Her grandchildren were her prize possessions, and they meant the world to her. Angelean served as the mother of the neighborhood. All the children considered her as their second mom, and she treated them as if they were her own. Before the passing of her mother-in-law, Angelean was the best caregiver there was, and for that her husband was forever grateful.

On the morning of March 7, 2023, Angelean while surrounded by loved ones, answered the call of her Master saying, "Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant" and peacefully transitioned from this walk of life to her new eternal heavenly home reuniting with her parents, Lawrence and Maxine Carmichael and brother, Johnny Carmichael.

Angelean's memories will forever be cherished by her loving and devoted husband, Mack McCluney; son, Kenneth (Nicole) McCluney; daughter, Marshay (Karlos) McCluney; four grandchildren, Kendrea Perkins, Malasia McCluney, Karliya Millender, and Kenslee McCluney; brother, Lawrence (Kimberly) Carmichael; two sisters, Sally White and Mary Heard; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends that will miss her greatly.

Although a solid pillar of our community has made her grand entrance through those pearly gates where the streets are paved with gold, her beautiful soul will never be forgotten and her memories we will forever hold.

Angelean you will be missed immensely.
