

Angelia Simmons

January 27, 1965 - May 30, 2024

Our beloved Angelia Simmons graced this world on January 27, 1965, in Ashland, Alabama, when she was born to the union of Lonzo and Marie Stowes Simmons.

Angelia's gentle spirit and unwavering faith led her to serve in various capacities at Roseline Baptist Church and at Victory Worship Center as a choir director. Working as a seamstress brought her joy and fulfillment over the years at Russell Mills and she later retired Wellborn Cabinets.

Angelia's presence touched many lives with her kindness and sincerity. Her quiet strength and integrity were her hallmarks, and her word was her bond. An enthusiast of basketball and football, she cheered fervently for her beloved Auburn War Eagles. Taking long drives and sharing conversations with her best friend, Carla, were moments she treasured.

On Thursday, May 30, 2024, while in the care of St. Vincent's Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama, Angelia Marie Simmons made her entrance through those pearly gates joining her parents Lonzo and Marie Simmons and all those loved ones who have gone before her.

As we celebrate Angelia's life, we remember her son Deandre (Nakesha) Wills; sisters, Deborah (Eric) Nix and Judy Searcy; special niece, Rahkia

Wallace; best friend, Carla Dunn; along with a multitude of extended family and friends who held a special place in her heart.

May her memory be a blessing and a source of comfort to all who knew and loved her.
