

Annie Washington

September 13, 1947 - February 4, 2024

Annie Washington, a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, peacefully departed from this world on February 4, 2024, at the age of 76. Born on September 13, 1947, in Talladega, Alabama, Annie was the daughter of Edward Swain and Melissa Jones Swain.

Annie's journey through life was one defined by faith, love, and dedication. From a young age, she devoted herself to her Christian faith, finding solace and strength in her relationship with God. Annie's spiritual journey led her to Bethel Missionary Baptist Church, where she first united with her church community. Later, when she relocated to Mississippi, she continued to serve the Lord and work in His vineyard. In her later years, after returning home, Annie found a church home at El Shaddai Ministries, where she remained a faithful member until her health failed.

Education played a significant role in Annie's life. She received her education from the Talladega County School System, ultimately graduating from Talladega County Training School, now known as Talladega County Central High School. Following her education, Annie dedicated herself to her work in environmental services as a custodian, leaving a lasting impact on those she served. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life, passionately tending to her garden and nurturing her beloved flowers.

Family was of paramount importance to Annie. She cherished the moments spent with her four loving sons, Amos Stewart, Jr., Edward (Miranda) Sherrod, Clifton (Amanda) Washington, and Bryant Washington, Sr. Annie's love extended to her nine grandchildren, Lateeia Spain, Amos Stewart, III, , Edleishia N. Sherrod, EdMariah Sherrod, Tashayla Foster, Dashiell Foster, Benni Ann Washington, Bryant Washington, Jr., Zyon Washington; three great-grandchildren, Kaizlei Elise Stewart, Taniyah Spain, and Kayla Spain; who were always the apple of her eye; special daughter, Earlethea Coleman; three brothers, Henry Swain, Lee (Audrey) Swain, and Floyd (Lola) Turner; six sisters, Apostle Laura (Willie) Brown, Ola Cole, Frances Lane, Luella Lee, Ophelia Swain, and Antoinette (Kenneth) Milner; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends who will miss her dearly.

On this day, we gather to reflect upon Annie Washington's remarkable life and bid her farewell. As she journeys to her eternal home, she will be warmly greeted by her parents, Edward and Melissa Swain, her brother, Charlie Turner, and her sister, Bonnie Pratt. Their reunion in heaven brings comfort to our grieving hearts.

May we find comfort in our shared memories and may Annie Washington's soul find eternal peace in the comforting arms of her Creator. Rest in peace, dear Annie.
