“Anthony is my baby brother. Even though I'm 6 years older, the 2 of us were each other's best friends. Memories of us as kids keep running through my mind, and my heart breaks each time I remind myself that he's departed from this life.

As brothers do..as friends do Anthony didn't hesitate to up and move across the country to help take care of me when I became very sick. Him stepping up to do everything to make sure I was comfortable, going to doctors taking my meds and eating was actually a little shocking at first, but then it dawned on me that when he's loves, he really loves.

I'm very blessed and thankful that God allowed us to live together for a while year. Even though it was very difficult for him to be far away from his son Jayden, just as it was always difficult for him to be so far away from his daughter Rita, he sacrificed it to help me when I needed it the most.

He's April's and my little brother and it saddens us beyond words, but we know his good heart and recent acceptance of God sent him to heaven. He wasn't perfect by any means, but he had a good heart and cared deeply about those he loves. I smile picturing him now finally meeting our mom Rita Faye Jackson and also with the mother who raised us, Hazel Jackson. You're free now baby brother. You're free.

“ My heart is truly broken. Your life's journey have come to an end much to soon. But the love in our hearts will forever be there for you. You are free from the troubles of this world and I pray your soul is at rest with the Master now. May God keep the family in His ever loving care and bless them with comfort and peace as needed.
Forever Love

As always, auntie, your love and words are comforting. I'm remembering all the sleepovers Anthony and I had with you Terrence and Brad. Some of the best memories of both our lives. Love you
