

Aundrelle Chandler

March 24, 1977 - July 25, 2025

Aundrelle Lavar Chandler was born on March 24, 1977, in Anniston, Alabama. He was the beloved son of Carolyn Chandler and the late Donnie Embry. Aundrelle was a vibrant spirit whose laughter could light up any room and a friend whose presence always brought fun.

Aundrelle's strong faith was the foundation of his character, guiding him through life's ups and downs. He attended Saint Mary Missionary Baptist Church and later joined Greater New Life Church. Aundrelle received his formal education while attending Charles Drew Middle School and Lincoln High School. After high school, he sought personal growth by joining Job Corp to develop his skills and make a better life for himself. Aundrelle was well equipped to enter the workforce and was afforded employment opportunities with several companies such as Vulcan Industries, Burford Tree Service, CMC, NSE and Bluegrass. He was a dedicated and hard worker.

Aundrelle was an avid fan of the Auburn Tigers and the Pittsburgh Steelers, proudly wearing his team colors on game days. He was known for his vibrant spirit and incredible sense of humor, making him the life of the party and a beloved friend to many.

On Friday, July 25, 2025, while under the care of UAB Hospital, Aundrelle L. Chandler completed his earthly journey and entered eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his father, Donnie Embry; his grandparents, Willie and Odessa Chandler and Johnathan and Doris Embry; special aunt, Juana Mclain; and uncle, Wyatt Embry.

Aundrelle Chandler's memories will forever be cherished by his children, Kiara Hawkins, Jaida Hawkins, Aundrelle Chandler, Jr., and Tymisha Lowery; grandchildren, Damari Brown, Tyler Harris, and Jamari Patterson; mother, Carolyn Chandler; brother, Roddrick (Autumn) Russell; goddaughter, Samajia Embry; special friend, Shawanda Whiteside; best friend, Bishop Dray Collins; special cousins; and a host of aunts, uncles, and other relatives and friends.

Aundrelle Chandler may have left this world, but his spirit, laughter, and love will continue to live on in each of us. Let us carry forth his legacy with joy, just as he brought joy into our lives.
