

Carey Culver

October 11, 1958 - February 17, 2022

Carey Damon Culver was born to the late Lester Culver, Sr. and Betty Bell Culver on October 11, 1958 in Anniston, Alabama.

Carey attended school in the Calhoun County School system and was a graduate of Anniston High School Class of 1977. After graduation, Carey joined the U.S. Airforce serving his country for 6 years. Once he completed his military journey, Carey began working as an Alabama Corrections Officer until his retirement.

On February 17, 2022, God called his child home while under the care of Baptist Health in Montgomery, Alabama. Preceding him in death were his parents, Lester Culver, Sr. and Betty Bell Culver and sister Ethel Louise Pearson.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories, two daughters, LaTasha Culver of Oxford, Alabama and Tondra Culver of Anniston, Alabama; the mother of his daughters, JoAnn Culver of Anniston, Alabama; one grandson, Terrell Lloyd of Anniston, Alabama; brothers, Ben Pearson of Birmingham, Alabama, Lester Culver, Jr. of Anniston, Alabama, Carl Culver of Anniston, Alabama and Wiley Culver of Abbeville, Alabama; sisters, Lessie Culver-Twyman of Anniston, Alabama, Gerolyn (Peaches) Culver of Anniston, Alabama, and Hallie Sue Hall of Jacksonville, Florida; a special friend, Sarah M. Coleman of Union

Springs, Alabama; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
