

Carolyn Ann Patrick

January 10, 1953 - April 5, 2026

Ms. Carolyn Ann Patrick, a vibrant soul, was born on January 10, 1953, in Anniston, Alabama, to Rosa Mae Royal. She was lovingly raised by her aunt and uncle, Rhodann Baker and Fred Baker. They instilled in her the importance of family and friendship, a lesson she carried throughout her life. Carolyn received her formal education in Calhoun County where she attended Calhoun County Training School.

Carolyn embraced life with a lively spirit that could light up any room. She was the life of the party, bringing warmth with her contagious laughter wherever she went. Carolyn's passion for life was evident in her love for people. She had a remarkable ability to uplift everyone around her, conveying a sense of happiness and love that was boundless as her spirited personality. Those who had the pleasure of knowing her were blessed with the gift of her infectious energy, her love for music, and her enthusiasm for dancing.

On April 5, 2026, Carolyn peacefully completed her earthly assignment and entered eternal rest while surrounded by her loved ones. She was preceded in death by her mother, Rosa Mae Royal; her aunt and uncle, Rhodann Baker and Fred Baker; her grandson, Stefan Hunter Jr.; her sisters, Gloria Stanford, Louise Jacks, and Deborah Denise Royal; her brothers, Douglas Williams and Clarence Royal Jr.; and her niece, Tina L. Johnson.

In every laughter shared, Carolyn Ann Patrick created beautiful memories that will forever be cherished by her daughters, Arashalla Royal and Adraine Royal; her sister, Clarence Mae Johnson; her brother, Larry Baker Sr.; her grandchildren, Audejia Royal, Dequrious Royal, and Jerunte Royal; her great-grandchildren, Rhilee Thornton and Taj Hunter; best friend of 50 plus years, Lorraine Montgomery; friends, Lavetta Ervin, Niecy Carter, and Sandra Mays Bradford; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Though our hearts ache with her loss, may her beautiful light continue to help brighten our darkest days. Carolyn Ann Patrick, a gentle force of joy, will forever live on in our hearts.
