

Casin Cupp

November 10, 2005 - September 10, 2025

-Casin Cupp, a brilliant light extinguished far too soon was born on November 10, 2005, in Anniston, Alabama. Casin was a cherished son to Charlie and Jennifer Huddleston Cupp. He departed this earthly realm on September 10, 2025, at the tender age of nineteen, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, warmth, and dreams yet to be fulfilled.

From an early age, Casin embraced faith, uniting with Oak Grove Baptist Church, where he fostered a spirit of compassion and community. His educational journey culminated in his graduation from Munford High School, where he was known for his infectious smile and uplifting personality.

Casin was a devoted youth, enamored with playing baseball at the Munford Recreational Center, where friendships blossomed under the sun-drenched sky. As he transitioned into adulthood, he began his work at Stockdale Farms in the agricultural sector, with aspirations of becoming a rancher-a dream infused with visions of a flourishing farm filled with cheerful animals. His heart belonged to the horses, and he reveled in the quiet, profound beauty of ranch life.

An aspiring photographer, Casin found joy in capturing fleeting moments, particularly those radiant sunsets that echoed his vibrant spirit. With each snapped photo, he shared his view of the world-a canvas painted with hope, beauty, and love.

On Wednesday, September 10, 2025, Casin Cupp departed this earthly realm at the tender age of nineteen, leaving behind a legacy of kindness, warmth, and dreams yet to be fulfilled. He was reunited his beloved grandparents, Ronnie Charles, Charles Cupp, Jr. and William Huddleston. Their reunion is an eternal celebration of love, a bond that transcends the earthly ties we cherish.

Casin's memory will forever echo in the hearts of his devoted parents, Charlie and Jennifer Cupp; his treasured brother, Jayden Cupp; special cousin, Dylan Pugh; loving grandparents, Darline Charles, Sandra Evans, and Kenny Evans; honorary grandparents, Cliff and Wanda Sanders; aunts and uncles: John (Heather) Cupp, Shane Reaves, Jared (Catherine) Charles, Dusty Sanders, Amber (Perry) Taylor, Pam (Brandon) Roberts, and Chris (Lavonne) Charles; and a host of cousins, relatives, and friends whose lives were enriched by the light he shared.

Friends and family are invited to honor Casin's life at his visitation, which will be held at S. M. Goodson Funeral Home Chapel offering a space for reflection, remembrance, and the sharing of cherished memories.

As we gather to celebrate the remarkable journey of Casin Cupp, let us hold dear the lessons of love, kindness, and passion he imparted through his brief time with us. Though he may be gone from our sight, he will forever remain alive in our hearts, guiding and inspiring us with his light.

“ I taught Casin and Jayden some in Sunday School. Casin always had a divine understanding of what Jesus our Savior did for us and that He is our Savior! I know He just changed locations before we wanted Him to go. Praying for a strength and peace that passes all human understanding for His family. We love ya'll, Oak Grove Baptist Church, & the Morrow's
