

Christine Vines

January 1, 1930 - November 8, 2025

Christine Finley Vines, a loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, was born on January 1, 1930, in Lafayette, Alabama to the parentage of Lonnie Hercules and Talitha Cumi Finley. A devoted Christian, Christine was a member of Mount Olive Baptist Church where she served diligently, allowing her unwavering faith to guide her through life's journey.

As a member of the Eastern Star, Christine fostered connections and shared her faith with her community. She was a talented seamstress and poured her creativity and love into every stitch, making countless cherished items for family and friends. As an outspoken woman with a keen eye for detail, Christine didn't shy away from sharing her thoughts. In her quieter moments, Christine loved to unwind with her fur babies, Uno and Bella, and watch classic Westerns, especially, Bonanza, Gunsmoke, and The Lone Ranger.

On Saturday, November 8, 2025, at the age of 95, Christine F. Vines was done with the troubles of this world and went home to be with God. She was reunited with her parents, Lonnie Hercules and Talitha Cumi Finley and her siblings, Melvin Finley, Orrie D. Calloway, Charlene Williams, Mae Willie Pitts, and Dennis Jennings.

Christine's memories will forever be treasured and remembered with love by her daughter, Eddie Faye (Curtis) Bowie; grandchildren, Kerry B. (Dr. Sherri-Ann) Bowie of Boston, MA, Kristopher L. (Shquila) Bowie of Birmingham, AL, and Karmen E. Bowie of Dallas, TX; great-grandchildren, Jaszia Bowie and Olivia Bowie, both of Birmingham, AL, and Alexis Bowie and Sophia Bowie, both of Boston, MA; siblings, Gussie L. Vines of Opelika, AL, and Ray Finley of Cincinnati, OH; special nieces who were her caregivers, Elaine (Kenneth) Emory, Gloria Gooden, Jacques Calloway, and Michelle Calloway, all of Anniston; special great niece, Tonya (Walter) Christian; special great-nephew, Anthony Gooden of Fayetteville, GA; and other nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

Though Christine may no longer walk among us, her legacy of love, hard work, and unwavering faith will forever shine bright in our hearts.
