

Clarence Scott

April 23, 1962 - August 8, 2021

Clarence Scott was born on April 23, 1962, to Taxen Lindsey in St. Louis, Missouri.

Clarence received his childhood education in the Calhoun County School System and was a 1980 graduate of Anniston High School. Upon his completion of high school, Clarence migrated to Tulsa, Oklahoma for 9 years. He later moved to Bellaire, Ohio and after 19 years, he relocated to Martin's Ferry, Ohio for 11 years. Along his journey, he met Mrs. Rayla Scott and they were united in holy matrimony; and to this union they were blessed with a daughter, Denise Scott and one grandchild, Trezell Safreed.

On Sunday, August 8, 2021, Mr. Clarence Scott serenely answered his Master's call and transitioned to his eternal resting place while under the care of Wheeling Hospital in Wheeling, WV. Preceding Clarence in death was his mother, Taxen Lindsey, his aunt Tressie Loveberry, his wife Rayla Scott, and his daughter Denise Scott.

Clarence memories will forever be cherished by his brothers, Wendell Scott (Sylacauga, AL), and Sterling Barnes (Huntsville, AL); his aunt, Clara Williams (Panama City, FL); his cousins, Derek Williams (McCalla, AL), Kenneth Loveberry (Alexandria, AL), Ronald Loveberry (Jacksonville, AL), Michelle Loveberry (Anniston, AL), Dianna Loveberry (Alexandria, AL); his grandchild, Trezell Safreed; three nieces; three nephews; nine great-nieces, four great-nephews; one great-great-niece; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Flowers and condolences may be sent to Goodson Funeral Homes in Talladega, AL.
