“ Momma Connie Sue has always been like a 2nd mother to me. She was there for me during my darkest days and never judged me no matter what was happening or what I was doing. She had the kindest spirit and has always been a loving and caring woman of God. I love her dearly and she will definitely be missed by myself and countless others. Thank God I have some beautiful and fond memories of our conversations after I got my life back. Thank you for loving me like a daughter❤️
