

Doris Houston Cole

March 15, 1948 - November 26, 2020

Doris Houston Cole was born to the late Robert and Luddie M. Houston. Doris was a 1966 graduate from TCTS. Doris enjoyed all outside activities, especially gardening and her flowers. She loved music, gospel, jazz, and blues. Her favorite song artists were Marvin Gaye, Al Green, Barry White and The William Brothers. Doris Houston Cole passed away peacefully at her residence in Talladega, Alabama on November 26, 2020 at the age of 72. She is preceded in death by her late husband Nathaniel Cole and brother Jeffrey Houston. She is survived by her daughter, Yolanda "Yoki" (Warren) Nobles, granddaughters, Chandra (Jamal) Twymon and Chasity Nobles; one sister, Robin G. Barclay; one brother, Dennis (Roxanna) Houston, and many loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members. No services are scheduled at this time, but a private memorial service will be held at a later date.

“ Yoki at a time like this think of the good times you had together. Doris and I were neighbors for a number of years and I always tried to make her feel like I was there for her and the same applies to you. If you need me for anything don't fail to call.

“ Yolanda, this is your first grade teacher. My prayers are with you. I will always treasure the good times I had with your mother while singing in the choir at Peace Church. May God's Grace and Mercy comfort you during the days ahead. Be strong and hold on. God loves you and so do I.
