

Dustin Butler

November 20, 1977 - May 3, 2023

Dustin Ryan Butler, better known as Dusty, 45, was born November 20th, 1977. He was a loving father, grandfather, son, brother, nephew and friend. Most importantly, Dustin knew and had a personal relationship with God.

Dustin grew up in Forestdale, AL and attended Minor High School, where he was their first ever North Regional Area Sectional champion wrestler. He wrestled proudly for Coach George Gibbons and had a record of over 200 wins and just 11 total losses. He studied at Jefferson State Community College. Dustin then attended Barber college and shortly after began his family with his one and only, Samantha Green Butler. He previously owned several barber shops and then earned his CDL license. Dustin was a driver for several companies.

Dustin was preceded in death by his grandparents, uncle Tony Butler, and lifelong best friend, Matthew Moulin.

Dustin is survived by his two daughters, Savannah (Tyler) Harry and Scarlett Butler; grandson, Holden Harry; his parents, Bubba and Teresa Duchock Butler; sisters, Tara (Matt) Wood and Tiffanie (Chris) Wilhelm; and abundance of nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles.

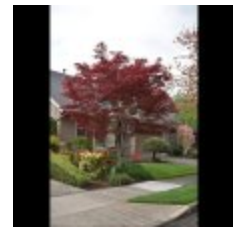

Dustin was known for his goofy personality and his kind heart. He lit up any room he walked into. Dustin is so loved and will be immensely missed, but his family finds peace knowing he is with our Lord and Savior.

“ Dusty, my heart is broken. I just can't believe or understand this. I'm going to miss you and our talks we had, the laughs we shared. Most of all I'm going to miss seeing your "pretty face". I love you

“ Oh, dear Dusty. I am so sorry. I am heartbroken. I love you and miss you so much. I'm praying for all your family for peace, strength and comfort. I am glad that you and Matthew are together again in heaven. I can only imagine the conversations and the laughs the two of you are having and the big fish the two of you are catching. Watching the two of you grow up together are among my most favorite memories. You will always be in our hearts. Your bright light of the happiness, fun and joy will continue to shine always. Until we see you again, rest in your deserved peace, Dusty, with your Savior.
