

Eric McGowan

November 20, 1954 - October 29, 2024

Mr. Eric McGowan, was born on November 20, 1954, in Pell City, Alabama. He was a cherished son of Ernest White and Pauline McGowan Bedford, who instilled in him grace and faith.

A man of deep religious conviction, Mr. McGowan found solace and strength in his faith, and spent his later years as a member of First Missionary Baptist Church South in Pell City. He received his formal education in the St. Clair County school System and was a graduate of Pell City High School. After completing his education, he pursued a career as a skilled welder, distinguishing himself in the welding industry. Through hard work and determination, he carved out a legacy of excellence in his craft. He had an unwavering love for his children and found great joy in simple pleasures like fishing, drawing, working on cars, and watching his beloved Alabama Roll Tide during football season. His passion for inventing and his inquisitive nature always kept him engaged in designing new things.

Mr. Eric McGowan Eric peacefully left this world on Tuesday, October 29, 2024, at his residence in Lincoln, Alabama. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ernest White and Pauline McGowan, bonus father, Hosea Bedford, Sr., sister, Ruby Kynard, and daughter-in-law, Tonya McGowan.

Mr. McGowan's life will be honored and remembered by his adoring sons, Eric

McGowan and Byron (Doretha) King; his daughter, Erika (Erron) Twymon; his beloved grandchildren, Chloe King, Erilyn Twymon, and Easton McGowan. He will forever be cherished by his brothers, Benny Bedford, Henry Bedford, Hosea Bedford, Robbie Bedford, Joseph Bedford, and Clifton Bedford; his sisters, Mary Bedford, Olivia Bedford, Cathy Bedford, Dena Bedford, and Monica Bedford; his brother-in-law, Ray Kynard; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

As we prepare to lay this beloved soul to rest, we reflect upon the legacy of compassion, faith, and dedication that Mr. Eric McGowan leaves behind. His memory will continue to inspire, and his spirit will forever live on in our hearts.
