

Frank Cook

July 27, 1952 - October 29, 2024

Born in West Point, Georgia on July 27, 1952, Mr. Frank was the son of John Lewis Cook and Willie Bell Campbell Cook.

Frank, affectionately known as "Bruh" by his family and friends, found joy in the simple pleasures of life. From spending time with his cherished family to indulging in his passion for music and reveling in the thrill of NASCAR races, Frank lived his life with a zest that was truly infectious. Throughout life, he enjoyed relaxing on the riverbanks fishing and watching the races, creating memories that would endure a lifetime.

Frank received his formal education in Valley, Alabama and later embarked on a fulfilling career as a forklift operator in the manufacturing industry, showcasing dedication and hard work in all endeavors. He also utilized his culinary skills during his tenure as a cook at the Alabama School for the Deaf and Blind, leaving a mark of warmth and delicious meals.

On Tuesday, October 29, 2024, Mr. Frank Cook transitioned from this earthly journey to eternal rest while in the comfort of his home. He was reunited with his mother, Willie Bell Cook, grandmother, Annie Mitchell, and niece, Eva Bell Servant.

Mr. Frank Cook leaves to cherish his memories two loving daughters, Michelle Cook and Jennifer (Dwight) Cook White; son, Nicholas Cook; father, John Lewis Cook; sisters, Eva Lee Servant and Eva Mae Williams; grandchildren, Clanencia "Ce-Ce" Groce, Daonta Cook, Mone'shia Lewis, Ja'Meice Lewis, Kinley Cook, Zanyah Cook, Gracie Swann, Nyriah Cook, and Josiah Cook; great-grandchildren, Keaden Groce and Ja'Myas Glen; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

The grace-filled life and legacy of Mr. Frank Cook will be fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him. As we gather to pay our respects and bid farewell, we find solace in the cherished memories he leaves behind.
