

Mrs. Frankie Mae Noel

March 4, 1940 - March 16, 2024

On March 4, 1940, in Anniston, Alabama, Mr. Clyde Hall, Sr. and Mrs. Agnes Myles Hall embraced the world with a beautiful daughter who was given the name Frankie Mae Hall.

It is evident that Frankie Mae Noel was a woman of faith and a true servant of the Lord. She accepted Christ as her Lord and personal Savior while attending Friendship Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. R.J. White. She was a dedicated member of the Abundant Life Outreach Ministry. Frankie received her formal education from the Anniston City School District and was a graduate of the Cobb High School Class of 1958. Frankie began her working career at Hagar Hinge and later became employed with Classic Ribbon continuing through C.M. Offray until they closed at which time, she decided it was time to retire and enjoy more quality time with her family.

Along Frankie's 84-year journey, she met and fell in love with her soulmate, Mr. Ralph Noel, Sr. The two became one when they were united in Holy Matrimony in August of 1960. Together they shared nearly sixty-four years of a sacred marriage and the blessing of sharing ten children.

Frankie lived for her family. Her warmth and love extended beyond her immediate family to her grandchildren, who were the light of her life. Frankie was a nurturer and loved all people. Caring for others came easily! She enjoyed cooking meals for family and loved ones but, baking was her passion. In the Anniston community, Frankie was well-known for her baking and cooking skills. She could whip up a "sweet potato pie", "red velvet cake", and "German chocolate cake" without any thought.

Along with entertaining her family, she loved partnering with her husband, Ralph on the weekend for a good game of Biz Wiz running the tables with anyone that wanted a challenge. Shopping was a part of Frankie's lifestyle, as she always had to look classy as she carried that beautiful smile that would brighten the darkest room.

On Saturday, March 16, 2024, at the blessed age of 84-years old, Mrs. Frankie Hall Noel, a beloved mother and cherished grandmother completed her journey of exuberant life and selfless love when she was peacefully called home to be with the Lord. She was preceded in death by her father, Clyde Hall, Sr., mother, Agnes Hall, sister, Edith White, brothers, William Hall, Sr., Walter Hall, Marvin, Hall, James Hall, Sr., Frederick Hall, Sr., Bobby Williamson, Sr., Clarence Hall, Sr., Robert Hall, and Clyde Hall, Jr, grandson, Andrei Zinnerman, great-grandson, Kash Allen, bonus daughter, Joanne Noel, father-in-law, Marvin Noel, Sr., and mother-in-law, Gracie Noel.
