

George Felliston

December 30, 1923 - January 6, 2024

Mr. George Felliston, a member of the Talladega community was born on December 30, 1923, in Talladega, Alabama to the union of Alfred Felliston and Maggie English Felliston.

Mr. George worked as an iron worker in the foundry industry over 40 years before retiring.

Mr. George was united in Holy Matrimony to the former Ms. Lillie P. Spratling for 60 years. After this union, Mr. George joined his wife in fellowship and became a member of Tinney Street Church of Christ.

Mr. George brought laughter and joy to family, friends, and all who crossed his path with his natural talent for entertaining. He truly missed his calling as a great comedian.

Mr. George enjoyed both fishing and hunting. He often shared his stories and experiences about the "BIG FISH" that got away, leaving a lasting impression on those who heard them.

On January 6, 2024, Mr. George peacefully passed away in Talladega, Alabama, with his loving daughter, who was his primary caregiver for over 15 years, at his side. He was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred Felliston and Maggie Felliston Mitchell, his wife, Lillie P. Felliston, brother, John A.

Curry, and sisters, Emma L. Streeter and Willie Mae Dye.

George is survived by his daughter, Shirley Turner; two sons, Terry (Teress) Truss and James (Eboni) Truss; his brother-in-law, James Suttle; sixteen grandchildren; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

While Mr. George's physical presence will surely be missed, his memory will forever be in our hearts.

May his soul rest in eternal peace.

Due to the continuing spread of viruses, there will be no repast or gathering at the homes of his children.

Mr. Felliston has already had a lifetime celebration on his 100th birthday. The graveside funeral is for everyone to have the opportunity to pay their final respect and say their final goodbyes.

We would like to thank everyone and may God's blessings be upon each of you.
