

Gertrude Jones

June 12, 1937 - April 22, 2025

Gertrude Jones, a devoted mother, grandmother, and sister, was born on June 12, 1937, in Selma, Alabama. She was the cherished and only daughter of the late Norman and Susianna Vinson. A remarkable woman with a stern but gentle spirit, she touched the lives of all who had the privilege to know her. Gertrude completed her education in the Anniston City School System and graduated from Cobb Avenue High School.

At a young age, Gertrude embraced her faith and dedicated her life to Christ and united with Smith Tabernacle CME Church where she contributed her gifts as a stewardess, trustee, missionary, Sunday school teacher, and more until her health declined. On June 14, 1976, she married the love of her life, Tommy L. Jones. Together, they formed a blended family and shared an abundance of love with their six daughters. Tommy was a pastor in the CME Church. Gertrude was a pillar of support in her husband's ministry, serving in every capacity needed. Her love for people and warm spirit left a lasting impact on every congregation they served.

On Tuesday, April 22, 2025, at the age of 87, Gertrude Jones while in the comfort of her home, heard the Master say, "Well done thy good and faithful servant" and entered eternal rest. She was preceded in death by her parents, Norman and Susianna Vinson; husband, Rev. Tommy L. Jones; grandson, Ben McKinney, Jr.; brothers, Melvin Vinson, Sepcia Vinson, and Charles Vincent; stepdaughter, Allyson Young; and grandson-in-law, DeAndre Hines, Sr.

Gertrude's memories will forever be cherished by her daughters, Beverly (Ben) McKinney and Cheryl (Woodrow) English; grandchildren, LaTonya Huguley, Marcus Carr, Marketa (Marques) Fennell, Jackie Williams, II, LaShuntae Hines, Benitra McKinney, Antoine McKinney, and Rodney Fomby McKinney; sixteen great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; brothers, Fred Godhigh, Jr. and Earl (Betty) Godhigh; step-daughters, Miranda Jones, Cheryl Murphy, and Deidre Diggs; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Gertrude's spirit lives on in the hearts of all who knew her, and we will cherish the memories, lessons, and love she shared throughout her remarkable journey.
