

Gwendolyn Kelly

June 1, 1976 - January 4, 2025

Mrs. Gwendolyn Jones Kelly, beloved daughter, wife, mother, sister, and friend was born on June 1, 1976, in Talladega, Alabama, to Sam and Shirley McKinney Jones.

Gwendolyn began her journey of faith at an early age, accepting Christ and becoming a devoted member of Greater Ebenezer Missionary Baptist Church. Throughout her life, she served her church community selflessly, progressing from a sunbeam to a dedicated Sunday School teacher, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of many.

Gwendolyn received her formal education while residing in Kissimmee, Florida where she was a graduate of Osceola High School. She continued her pursuit of knowledge, earning an associate's degree in business from Ayers Technical College. Gwendolyn utilized her skills as she embarked on a fulfilling career in education, nurturing young minds until her health began to decline.

Those who had the pleasure of knowing Gwendolyn experienced her steadfast willingness to help others. She was a fierce advocate for her family, ensuring that every member remained connected and grounded. Gwendolyn had a passion for cooking, reading, and music, but her true joy came from shopping and keeping her hair and nails with a classy look, always adorned with elegance and grace. She cherished quality time with her family, especially her children and grandchildren, who were the lights of her life, along with her fur babies. Gwendolyn's sweet and humble spirit touched the hearts of all who met her. Her caring and giving nature will be fondly remembered, creating a lasting legacy of love and compassion.

On Saturday, January 4, 2025, Gwendolyn Jones Kelly 48-year earthly journey ended when she peacefully transitioned to her eternal home joining her beloved father, Samuel Jones, grandparents, Frank (Katy) McKinney, Viola Williams, and John T. Garrett, mother-in-law, Ada V. Hunter, and her fur babies, Princess, Tink, and Kendyl.

Gwendolyn leaves behind a treasure trove of memories to forever be cherished by her loving and devoted husband, Stevie Kelly; adorable daughter, Kenydi Caliyle Kelly; four sons, Martez (Keyanna) Kelly, Tevin (Olivia) Williams, Samuel Williams, and Jason (Anhia) Williams; her sweet and caring mother; Mrs. Shirley Jones; sisters, Gloria Elaine (Michael) Hancock and Ericka (Dewayne) Albert; brother-in-law, Timothy Keith; four sisters-in-law, Dorothy Kelly, Diane (Tommy) Kelly, JoAnne Keith, and Virginia Hughley; special friends, Kiesha King, LaKeshia Bolden, and Rose Bracy. She will also be profoundly missed by her sixteen grandchildren, a multitude of nieces, nephews, and countless other relatives and friends.

As we gather to celebrate Gwendolyn's rich and vibrant life, we invite all who knew and loved her to join us in remembering a truly remarkable woman whose legacy of kindness will live on in the hearts of many.

“ Gwen was a good friend of mine and went to school with me until 4th Grade , then her family moved away. Her mom and mom are great friends. Lost track of Gwen after she graduated

She will be greatly missed by everyone . Gwen was a beautiful and smart woman. I will always keep the memories we had together in my heart.

Just wish the Jones family could catch a break, they been through so much.

R.I.P. GWEN !!!! YOU ARE FREE NOW AND WITH YOUR DAD!!!

“ My deepest condolences to the Jelly and Jones families. May God give you all strength you'll need as you travel this journey. I know this loss has a hole within your heart that can never be refilled. I realize that you miss Gwen and your eyes are flowing which seems to be a never ending river.... Gwen's mission and propose here on earth has come to an end, she's now at peace no more pains and no more suffering she fought a good fight. God sent his angels to bring her home because her propose with us has come to a close. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". Gwen loved you all and she knew she was loved.... I love you all my families.
