

Isom Hermon Lawler

October 17, 1951 - March 21, 2021

Isom Hermon Lawler was born on October 17, 1951 to the late Nellie Ruth Lawler Twymon and Isom Farris. He was preceded in death by his parents and two older brothers, Ben Twymon, Jr. and John Wayne Lawler.

Isom "Hermon" received Christ at an early age and joined Africa Baptist Church in Talladega, Alabama. After migrating to Brooklyn, New York in 1963, he later joined Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church.

His education began at Pine Hill Elementary School and Robert Russa Moton in Alabama. He later attended Franklin Delanor Roosevelt High School in Brooklyn, New York. When he completed his high school matriculation, he was immediately hired by United States Postal Service. After leaving the Postal service he joined the United States Army with a final rank of SPEC 5. He was a member of the military for 12 years. Upon completing his military career, he obtained his Associates Degree in Business Administration. This enabled him to begin his second career working for HIP (Hospital Indemnity Plan). Due to health issues, he took early disability retirement.

Hermon was an avid sports fan. He could provide all that stats on every team and every player. He was a Jeopardy enthusiast. He made the answers seem easy. Hermon was very smart and intuitive. He could fix any and everything. One of his passions was trivia. At any given moment he would ask a random did you/do you know question and anticipate you not being able to answer so that he could glowing give the answer. His hobby was coin collecting which he truly enjoyed.

Hermon leaves to cherish in his memory his children, Demetrice Drake of Jarratt, Virginia, Monica (Johnny) Johnson and Darrell Estelle, of Talladega, Alabama and Arielle Ransome of Brooklyn, New York; four grandchildren, Tyshon Prezzy, Kyia Jones, Deasia Hill, and Jacob Johnson; four sisters, Martha S. Lawler of Brooklyn, New York, Nellie Faye Shannon of Far Rockaway, New York, Charlene Gilliam of Douglasville, Georgia, and Isheka Farris of Orangeburg, SC Cleveland, OH; two aunts, Catherine Lucy Murphy of Brooklyn, New York and Nancy Lawler of Cleveland, OH; and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Sgt. Lawler was one of the best Drill Sgts. (instructors), I've ever known, he took the time to make sure we got it right he taught me how to drive a stick shift jeep, after he threw me out, the jeep, when I had us bouncing all over the place 😊, I've always wondered if he retired, S.I.P., Big Sarge, Amen! 🙏

Archimedes B Bateman Sr. - October 19, 2021 at 09:26 AM

AS

Correction (SSGT) Staff Sargeant!

Archimedes B Bateman Sr. - October 19, 2021 at 09:33 AM

Bateman and I was trained by SSGT. Lawler back in 1981 at Ft. McCellen, AL. He made us All better Men and Women as a result of his leadership due our Basic Training. Keep marching in Heaven Big SGT. Ray A. Boykin, Sr. Mobile, Al.

Tony Boykin - October 20, 2021 at 06:46 PM

Bateman and I was trained by SSGT Lawler, back in 1981 at Ft. McClellan, AL. As a result of his leadership, he made us All better Men. Keep marching in heaven. Thanks Big SGT.

Tony Boykin - October 20, 2021 at 06:50 PM

PJ

“ Hermon you were family never forgotten all the times when you came home on leave to Alabama. You always made it to see Bennie Lee and Paul Eddie mr Ed was always glad to see you and i was always waiting to visit with you. You will be missed. S.Y.O.S.
PAUL EDDIE JR.(BIG NIP)

Paul E Garrett Jr - March 30, 2021 at 07:53 PM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Isom Hermon Lawler.

March 30, 2021 at 08:56 AM

“ Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum was purchased for the family of Isom Hermon Lawler.

March 29, 2021 at 09:23 PM

“ Sacred Duty Spray was purchased for the family of Isom Hermon Lawler.

March 26, 2021 at 05:42 PM