

Mr. Jack Heath, Jr.

February 28, 1951 - October 30, 2023

Born on February 28, 1951, in Anniston, Alabama, Jack A. Heath, Jr. was the beloved son of Jack Adolphus Heath Sr. and Lena Edmondson Heath.

Jack led a life filled with purpose and service. He was a faithful member of Living by Faith Ministries in Oxford, Alabama, where he actively contributed as a deacon and served on the church's usher team and financial committee. Additionally, Jack graduated from Cobb Avenue High School in 1969 where he was a star trumpet player. He later enlisted in the United States Air Force, proudly serving his country for nearly four years before receiving an honorable discharge in 1973.

After his military service, Jack pursued higher education at Gadsden State Community College. Although he did not obtain a degree from Gadsden State, he did complete heavy equipment operator school in 1977; thus, aiding him in his career as a sales Supervisor in the government industry. Jack dedicated 28 years of his life as a supervisor in the warehouse of the Ft. McClellan Commissary Exchange, ensuring smooth operations and contributing to the welfare of his colleagues.

Upon his retirement, Jack sought new opportunities to support his beloved family, joining the electronic department at Walmart Supercenter in Oxford, Alabama. For 15 years, he continued to exemplify his strong work ethic and provide for his loved ones, truly showing his compassionate and caring nature.

In his spare time, he liked to watch the History and Sci-Fi channels. He enjoyed fellowshiping with his brothers in Christ. But most of all he found joy in studying God's word every morning while he had his cup of coffee.

Jack A. Heath, Jr., a compassionate and dedicated man, peacefully passed away on October 30, 2023, in the comfort of his home in Oxford, Alabama. During this difficult time, we find solace in knowing that Jack has been reunited with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jack A. Heath Sr., his sister, Pamela Edmondson, and his special aunt Fannie Leonard, who have preceded him in death. Their memories will forever be treasured.

Jack will forever be remembered as a dedicated and loyal family man. He was cherished by his loving wife, Cynthia Heath, who stood by his side throughout their journey together; three daughters, Tameka Me'Sha (Michael) Heath, Jacquelyn Lydia Heath, and Marquita Rana Reed; his son Donrico (Tarea) Robinson; two sisters, Lula Dickson and Brenda (James) Smith; special brother, Isaiah West; bonus brother, Van Robinson; bonus sisters ,Rita Johnson, Toya Robinson and Tracy Robinson. Jack's legacy lives on through his fourteen adoring grandchildren: Ka'Juan Reed Jr., D'Metry Boyd, Christian Thompson, Aubrey Jackson, Madison Jackson, Elijah Reed, Levi Reed, Nyomi Marlana Heath, Eric Trey Perry, Kayden Robinson, Ericka Robinson, Makhyia Spencer, Nevaeh Spencer, Amari Nealy and four great-grandchildren. He will be deeply missed by his extended family, including nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Jack Heath Jr. will forever be remembered for his unwavering love, kindness, and dedication to his family and community. His compassionate spirit has left an indelible mark on the lives of all who had the privilege of knowing him. May his rest be peaceful, and his memory be eternal.
