

Jeff Dorman

December 21, 1936 - April 25, 2025

~Born on December 21, 1936, in Talladega, Alabama, he was the beloved youngest of twelve children born to the late Allen Dorman, Sr. and Bessie Shivers Dorman. Following the passing of his mother during his infancy, Bro. Jeff was lovingly reared by his aunt in Chattanooga, Tennessee. At the tender age of six, he returned to his father and siblings, embracing a life of faith as he accepted Christ and joined Sweet Home Baptist Church.

~Bro. Jeff, affectionately known as "Unc", journey was marked by resilience and hard work. He began his education in the Talladega County School System before moving to Rochester, New York at the age of 17, where he completed his schooling. He dedicated 26 years of service at Star Logistics before retiring and eventually moving to Georgia in 1980, then spending 28 fulfilling years in Sanford, Florida, where he developed a passion for fishing, often spending countless days on his boat at the riverfront with other fisherman, surrounded by the beauty of nature he cherished. Mr. Dorman also enjoyed staying healthy and would walk two miles every day prior to the pandemic and his health declining, yet this never stopped him from being the classy dresser he always was.

~In 2009, he returned to his roots in Alabama, where he embraced the warmth of his hometown and the close-knit community of Silver Run. His unwavering devotion to God and love for his church family brought joy and comfort to all who knew him. As a faithful member of Sweet Home Baptist Church, he cherished every opportunity to praise God and connect with fellow believers.

~After 88 impactful earthly years, on Friday, April 25, 2025 while in the care of Anniston health and Rehab, God beckoned for his servant, Bro. Jeff Dorman, to come home for eternal rest, where he is now rejoicing with his heavenly Father and the multitude of loved ones who have gone before him, including his parents, Allen Dorman, Sr. and Bessie Dorman, three brothers, Allen Dorman, Jr., George Dorman, and Jack Dorman, and eight sisters, Annie Laura Archie, Rosie Lee Dorman, Tommie Bradford, Nellie Powell, Mary Handley, Lula Bell Dorman, Emmie Jackson, and Ozella Dorman.

~Mr. Dorman leaves his precious memories to forever be cherished by his three daughters, Cassandra Dorman and Yolanda Dorman of Rochester, New York, and Kisha (Willie) Ware of Miami, Florida; two granddaughters, JaLyssa Burns of Rochester, New York and Reagan Ware of Miami, Florida; a special niece, Myra Dorman of Anniston, Alabama; sister-in-law, Maggie Dorman of Munford, Alabama; and a host of nieces, nephews, and dear friends who will carry his memory in their hearts forever.

~As we gather to remember and honor Bro. Jeff Dorman, let us reflect on the joy he brought into our lives and the faith that guided him throughout his journey. His spirit will live on in each cherished memory we hold dear.

“ In Loving Memory of My Grandfather

Words can never fully express how much I loved my grandfather. For 32 beautiful years, I was blessed to have him in my life—guiding me, loving me, and showing me what strength, kindness, and faith truly look like. His wisdom, warmth, and unwavering presence shaped me in ways I will carry forever.

I am endlessly thankful for every moment we shared, every story he told, every hug, and every quiet reminder of how deeply he cared. Though my heart aches, I take comfort in knowing his spirit lives on in me and in everyone who was lucky enough to know him.

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” – Psalm 34:18

Rest peacefully, Grandpa. You will always be with me.
