

Jeffery D Calhoun

July 12, 1984 - September 20, 2021

Jeffery DeWayne Calhoun was born on July 12, 1984, to the union of J.D. Garrett and Elouise Calhoun Garrett in Talladega, Alabama.

At an early age, Jeffery received Christ and united with Mt. Sinai Baptist Church in Alpine, Alabama. Later in life, Jeffrey began attending People Saves Deliverance Ministry in Childersburg, Alabama under the leadership of Pastor James Marbury. Jeffrey received his childhood education in the Talladega County School System and was a graduate of Childersburg High School Class of 2003. He began his working career soon after completing high school and at the time of his passing, he had been employed with Long Drilling Foundation for over 12 years.

Along Jeffery's life journey, he met his best friend, Shakira Garrett Calhoun, and together they were blessed with two beautiful children, Jakayla and Khari. Jeffery much like his late father "J.D.", loved enjoying life, entertaining family and friends, dancing, music, cooking, and definitely cheering on the Alabama "Roll Tide" Football team. All of these were a pleasure to him.

On Monday evening, September 20, 2021, Jeffery's life journey ended when he transitioned from his earthly home to his eternal rest joining his parents, J.D. and Elouise Garrett.

Jeffrey leaves to cherish his memories his two loving children, Jakayla D. Calhoun and Khari N. Calhoun; three brothers, Anthony Andre Fomby, Tracy L. Fomby, and Acourtney (Lenore) Lawson, seven sisters, Tricia Calhoun, Sheronica (Johnny) Swain, Felicia Calhoun, Ella Mack, LaTasha Calhoun, Vinnie Calhoun, and Shakita (DeWilliam) Woodgett; five aunts, Florence Garrett, Patricia Garrett, Betty Calhoun, Doris Calhoun, and Dorletha Calhoun; six uncles, Joe Calhoun, Terry Calhoun, Thomas Calhoun, Leander Calhoun, David Calhoun, and Calvin Calhoun; and a host nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends
