

Jenny Jordan

February 20, 1982 - January 12, 2026

Born on February 20, 1982, in Pell City, Alabama to parents Derryll Jordan and Lavia Bowie Benjamin was a beautiful bubbly baby girl who was given the name Jenny Nicole Jordan. Jenny's life was a masterful blend of faith, resilience, and unconditional love-a true testament to the transformative power of grace.

From an early age, Jenny embraced Christ, nurturing her faith within the comforting walls of Bloominglight Baptist Church before joining the First Baptist Church of Cropwell. Her spirituality was not simply a practice; it was the essence of her being. With gratitude as her guide, she navigated life's challenges, embodying joy even in adversity, alongside the steadfast belief that "God is good all the time, and all the time God is good."

Jenny's pursuit of knowledge was evident in her studies at Alabama A&M University, where she proudly pledged Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated, and continued her education at both Jacksonville State University and Talladega College. Her commitment to lifelong learning mirrored her passionate spirit, continuously striving to reach new heights.

For over twenty years, Jenny bravely grappled with Multiple Sclerosis, a journey that would have discouraged many. Yet, she faced each day with humor, grace, and an indomitable spirit. She believed in the power of love and laughter, and her life radiated compassion, making all who crossed her path feel seen and valued. A lover of butterflies, Jenny embraced the symbolism of transformation and hope, reminding us all that new beginnings await.

Jenny's legacy is one of faith over fear, gratitude over grief, and joy over circumstance. To know her was to experience the warmth of a heart that beat in rhythm with love, enveloping all who were fortunate enough to be in her presence.

As time winds its course, we look ahead to a future where Jenny's spirit transcends this earthly realm, as she embarks on her journey towards eternal peace. On Tuesday, January 12, 2026, at St. Vincent East in Birmingham, Alabama. Jenny was welcomed into peace, joining her grandfather, Sylvester Bowie, and her uncle, Ira Bowie, Sr.

She leaves behind her cherished family: loving parents, Lavia (Richard) Benjamin and Derryll (Gaye) Jordan; her treasured son, Ryan Anthony Washington, whom she welcomed into the world on August 1, 2006; her devoted brother, Darcell (Dorothy) Jordan; her sister, Preshous Jordan; her grandmother, Irene Bowie; and a multitude of dear friends and beloved relatives who will honor her memory with love and laughter.

As we come together, let us reflect on the joy Jenny brought into our lives, celebrating her legacy of love, compassion, and unwavering faith. May her spirit continue to inspire us all as we cherish the memories and honor the light she brought into this world.

I will never forget all the times you would come to my house and we would sit on the porch or out in the yard laughing and talking about some of everything. I am so glad we shared a bond that no one never new but us. I will miss you and will continue to hold you in my heart forever. Take your rest sister. Until we meet again.

Jenny was a beautiful soul and a light to this world. Upon leaving Alabama A&M, Jenny would come visit. Of course, life got busy and we lost touch, but she was still in my thoughts and prayers throughout the years. I am glad that I got to know her, and her family will be in my prayers.
