

Jerome Charles Freeman

September 1, 1951 - November 30, 2025

Jerome C. Freeman, a devoted community servant, was born in Anniston, Alabama on September 1, 1951, to the union of Horace Freeman and Billie Byrdsong Freeman. He received his formal education in Calhoun County and graduated from Calhoun County Training School. After high school, he proudly served his country in the United States Army.

Jerome poured his heart into serving his community, dedicating countless hours to various civic and local organizations including, W.A.M.S. Organization, Elks Lodge, Water Works and Sewer Board, 9-1-1 Board, Anniston Parks and Recreation, and the Beautification Board. Jerome's influence and service extended beyond any single group or title, leaving an indelible mark on the Anniston community and those fortunate enough to know him.

On Sunday, November 30, 2025, Jerome Charles Freeman, at the age of 74, transitioned from labor to reward and entered eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his parents, Horace and Billie Freeman; daughter, LaSonya Peters; and siblings, Billie G. Freeman, Tyrone Freeman, and Frederick Freeman.

Jerome's love and memories will forever be cherished by his devoted wife, Brooklyn Scales Freeman. His legacy will continue through his loving children, Kevin J. Freeman, Andrea (Kenneth) Freeman-Silas, and Shandrika (Gavin) Christopher. Jerome was the proud grandfather of Landun Peters, Kayla Peters, Cameron Christopher, Kennedy Silas, Blake Silas, and Peyton Christopher. Jerome's memories will forever be treasured by his siblings, Katrince Freeman, Bobby D. Freeman, Gerry D. Freeman and Elizabeth J. Henry, and other family members and friends.

Jerome Charles Freeman's infectious spirit and unwavering commitment to service will be missed, but the legacy he leaves behind will continue to inspire. Let us honor him by carrying forward the kindness, dedication, and love he so generously shared throughout his life.
