

Jerry Curry

March 17, 1961 - June 25, 2025

Born on March 17, 1961, in Talladega, Alabama, Jerry Laray Curry was a warm-hearted soul whose memory will forever be etched in the hearts of those who loved him.

The son of Dallas Curry, Jr. and the late Odessa Stamps Curry, Jerry embraced life with an infectious smile and a joyful spirit. From a young age, he dedicated his life to Christ, uniting with Union Springs Missionary Baptist Church, where he served faithfully until his health began to decline. His education through the Talladega County School System culminated in a high school diploma from Munford High School, paving the way for a fulfilling career in the automotive industry. Jerry's passion for cars was evident in his skilled craftsmanship, particularly in auto body work, where he took immense pride in his painting and detailing expertise.

A man of many interests, Jerry filled his life with family, adventure, and a love for football. He often gathered friends and loved ones to cheer on the Alabama Roll Tide, illustrating his spirited nature. His fondness for NASCAR racing brought excitement to his weekends, while his culinary adventures as a self-proclaimed master griller filled many gatherings with laughter and delightful flavors.

Jerry Laray Curry, a beloved father, brother, grandfather and cherished member of the Talladega community, peacefully departed this earthly realm on June 25, 2025, at the age of 64, while in the compassionate care of UAB

Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama. Once answering the Master's call, he was reunited with his mother, Odessa Curry and twin brother, Terry Curry. Jerry's legacy endures through his cherished children, Autabious Hall, Tisha Curry, and Dorothy (Sabastian) Bryant, alongside his beloved grandchildren, Caderio Holland, Anila Mobley, Amari Hall, and Anyla Hall. He will be lovingly remembered by his father, Dallas Curry, Jr.; his three brothers, Carnell Curry, Stanley (Marvalene) Elston, and Tyrone (Brenda) Lawson; his seven sisters, Vanessa (Tony Wright) Curry, Patrice Curry, Alice Faye (Bobby) Welch, Catherine Elston, Melissa (Michael) Holiday, Natasha (De'Vonte) Roberts, and Tenille Madden; special aunt, Annie Mae Stamps; special uncle, Jerry Curry; and a host of nieces, nephew, cousins, other relatives, and friends. In this time of sorrow, we find comfort in the love and support extended by all who knew Jerry. His compassionate nature, infectious laughter, and unwavering dedication to his family will forever inspire us. As we bid farewell to Jerry Curry, we celebrate a life filled with love, warmth, and cherished memories. His spirit will continue to guide us, as we carry forth his legacy of kindness and joy. May his soul rest in eternal peace, and may we always remember him with love and gratitude.
