

Jesse Morris

July 20, 1948 - November 11, 2023

Born on July 20, 1948, in Talladega, Alabama, Jesse Gene Morris, Sr. was the son of the late Johnnie C. Morris and the late Mae Bell Morris.

Jesse's life was marked by unwavering faith and a deep commitment to his community. At an early age, he found solace and purpose in the Kingston Missionary Baptist Church, where he wholeheartedly served as a Deacon for over 35 years. His dedication to his faith extended beyond the church walls, as he also taught Sunday School, inspiring countless individuals with his wisdom and kindness.

Professionally, Jesse held positions at Bemiston Textiles Mill and Georgia Pacific, where he served as a supervisor. However, it was in the field of construction where he truly flourished. With an entrepreneurial spirit, Jesse became a self-employed contractor in the construction industry, leaving his mark on the local area and contributing to the growth and development of the community for more than four decades.

On April 11, 1970, Jesse entered into a beautiful and loving union with his wife, Essie B. Morris. Together, they built a life filled with love, devotion, and shared adventures. Their bond was unwavering and served as a source of strength and support throughout their journey as they welcomed two loving children to their union, Lisa and Jesse, Jr. Deacon Jesse Gene Morris, Sr., a beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, peacefully passed away in Alpine, Alabama on November 11, 2023, while in the comfort of his home surrounded by love. As the Lord beckoned for Him saying "Well Done My Good and Faithful Servant" Deacon Jesse was reunited with his parents, Johnnie C. Morris and Mae Bell Morris, and other relatives who had gone before him.

Jesse's legacy lives on through his loving and devoted wife, Essie B. Morris; lovely daughter, Lisa Morris; son, Jesse (Deborah) Morris, Jr. He was a source of love, guidance, and inspiration to his grandchildren, Jameria J. Taylor, Taylor M. Morris, Abby N. Raye-Morris, and Jesse James Morris; his great-grandchildren, Madison A. Henderson and Morgan R. Dates who will forever cherish the memories and wisdom imparted by their six sisters-in-law, LaVonne Morris, Elois Morris, Bettye Borden, Tina Kight, Eleanor Franklin, and JoAnna Thomas; two brothers-in-law, Paul Borden and William Franklin; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and a vast network of devoted friends and loved ones.

While we mourn the loss of this remarkable man, Jesse's family takes comfort in knowing that he has left an indelible mark on the hearts and minds of all who had the privilege of knowing him. His gentle spirit, selflessness, and unwavering faith serve as a reminder to cherish every moment and embrace the power of love and compassion.

Jesse Morris's departure has left a void in our lives, but his memory will be forever etched in our hearts. May his soul find eternal peace, and may his family find solace in the knowledge that Jesse's legacy will continue to inspire generations to come.
