

John Weed

March 14, 1936 - December 5, 2021

Mr. Weed's eighty-five year earthly journey began when he was born to Mrs. Della Ann McCain Weed on March 14, 1936 in Talladega County, Alabama. At an early age, Mr. Weed accepted Christ and united with Pine Grove Baptist Church in Lincoln, Alabama, where he served faithfully as a trustee. He received his formal education in the Talladega County School system and attended Talladega County Training School, known today as Talladega County Central High School. Mr. Weed later migrated to Boston, Massachusetts for better job opportunities. He worked many years in Boston before returning back home to Alabama and retiring from CLOW Manufacturing in Lincoln. Mr. Weed known to many as "Henry" met and married his soulmate, Mrs. Deanna Britt Weed, along his path in life. Together they were blessed with a beautiful daughter, Lowanda, and granddaughter, DeAndra. He loved his family and enjoyed sitting on the porch with his wife, watching football, and watching his WESTERNS was a must.

In the comfort of his home while surrounded by loved ones, Mr. John "Henry" Weed peacefully gained his heavenly wings when he accepted the call of his Master on Sunday, December 5, 2021. He was welcomed home by his mother, Della Ann Weed; brothers, Tommy Lee Weed and Henry Weed; and sisters, Willie Mae Weed, Mae Francis Weed, Fannie Bell Groce, Louise Curry, and Oneatha Jemison.

Mr. Weed leaves to cherish his precious memories: his loving and devoted wife, Deanna Britt Weed; one daughter, Lowanda (Dwight) Elston;

granddaughter, DeAndra Elston; special niece, April Groce; special nephew, Julius (Charlotte) Groce; brother-in-law, George (Margaret) Britt of California; sister-in-law, Sadie (L.D.) Britt of Lincoln, Alabama; and a host of nieces, nephews
