

Jonathan Adams

April 19, 1968 - January 14, 2026

Born on April 19, 1968, in Talladega, Alabama, to Link Adams, Jr. and Julia Irene Twyman Adams, Jonathan's life was a testament to resilience, quiet strength, and unwavering faith. Jonathan, affectionately known as "Duck" by family and friends, was a gentle soul whose spirit radiated warmth and love. A member of Resting in the Lord Ministries, where he accepted Christ as his Savior and began to live a saved life, cultivating a relationship with God that guided and comforted him throughout his life. Educated in the Talladega City School System, Jonathan worked tirelessly in the manufacturing industry, notably as a filter cutter, contributing through hard work to support his family. Jonathan's spirit was as vibrant as his hometown. He carried the legacy of laughter and love, navigating life's journey where his dedication and humor brought joy to his coworkers and friends alike. A devoted sports enthusiast, Jonathan found joy in cheering for his beloved Auburn Tigers and the San Francisco 49ers. He cherished the moments spent with family, creating enduring memories that will forever be woven into the fabric of their lives. Jonathan's laughter was infectious, lighting up any room he entered. He had a wonderful sense of humor that could turn even the most mundane moments into cherished memories. He found great joy in life's simple pleasures, particularly relishing in the art of shopping, where he often showcased his unique and playful sense of style.

Jonathan Demetrius Adams, a beloved son, father, brother, and friend, transitioned peacefully into eternal rest on January 14, 2026, with his family at his side, while in the care of Grandview Medical Center in Birmingham, Alabama. Jonathan is now reunited with his loving father, Link Adams, Jr., and his cherished daughter, Kiara Chatman, as well as his brothers George Adams, Steve Adams, and Jeffery Adams, and his esteemed grandparents, Link Adams, Sr. and Lillie Chatman and Nettie and Lazarus Twyman. He leaves behind a tapestry of love and memories to be cherished by his children, Jonathan Adams, Jr., JaColby Chatman, Demetria (Curan) Shockley, Myesha (John) Moore, and Jamesha Chatman; his beloved mother, Julia Irene Twyman Adams; and his adoring grandchildren, Morgan, Abigail, Savannah, Zaveah, Dominic, and Jaelyn. He holds a special place in the hearts of his siblings-Henry (Sunette) Adams, Micheal (Tina) Adams, Jr., Nellie (Ervin) Swain, Julia (Harrell) Herring, Elizabeth (Willie C.) Garrett, Mary Stevenson, Carolyn (James) Tandy, Angela (Patrick) Adams-Ashley, and LaTonya (Letrok) Beavers-and countless aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

As Jonathan is laid to rest, we will say our final goodbyes and reflect on the indelible mark he has left on all who knew him. In this time of sorrow, we also celebrate a life lived with purpose and passion, a life that continues to inspire love and unity among us.

Though Jonathan has departed from this earth, his spirit will forever live on in our hearts, guiding us as we navigate life's journey without him. To honor his memory, let us carry forward the love he instilled in us, embracing the bonds of family and friendship that bound him so tightly to our lives.

Rest in peace, dear Jonathan. You are loved beyond measure.
