

Johnathan Boyd

April 16, 1980 - May 5, 2023

On April 16, 1980, Johnathan Vann Boyd began his earthly journey when he was born to the union of Charles Boyd and Ronia Underwood Boyd in Gadsden, Alabama.

Johnathan confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior while attending Faith Whole Truth. He received his education in the Etowah County School System and was a graduate of Gadsden High School. Upon completing high school, Johnathan worked various jobs including MasterBrand, Nematik, and The Foundry; but at the time of his death, he was employed with Benjamin Moore. He loved cars, with "Mustangs" being his favorite. Johnathan enjoyed working in the yard and he found peace while doing woodwork. Listening to music brought great joy to his soul and if you knew him well enough, you knew he thought he was the best dancer and could cut a rug at the sound of a beat! He was always so full of life, and everyone loved him instantaneously. Because of his likable personality and good attitude, Johnathan was so easy to love.

On Friday, May 5, 2023, Johnathan traded his 43-year earthly journey for eternal rest reuniting with his mother, Ronia Boyd.

Johnathan leaves behind a legacy of love and memories to forever be cherished by his wife, Albrica Boyd; two daughters, Jabrayla Boyd and Brionna Boyd; bonus son, Jakeim Jenkins; father, Charles Boyd; two brothers, Josh Underwood and Max Boyd; four sisters, Kendra Underwood, Mauricette (Andre) Ruffin, Tomeka Boyd, and Nikki Boyd; granddaughter, MaKenzie Boyd; father and mother-in-law, Albert and Sandra Hall; sister-in-laws, Shernoca Degraffenreid, Cassandra (Demetrius) O'neal, and Quaticca Jenkins; special friend, Anthony Lanthrip; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
