

Josephine Gaston

November 8, 1940 - July 20, 2022

Mrs. Josephine "Josie" Gaston of Talladega, Alabama was born on November 8, 1940 to the late W.C. Cook and Ada Taylor Young.

At an early age, Mrs. Gaston accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and united with Holy Hill Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ in Lincoln, Alabama. She later began to attend worship services at Cave Spring Baptist Church but made Peace Baptist Church her final church home. Mrs. Gaston received her formal education in the Talladega County School System and attended R.R. Moton School in Sycamore, Alabama.

Mrs. Gaston was affectionately known to the community and family as "Josie". She found great joy in sewing and spending time with her family and friends, especially her grandchildren. She will truly be missed by all the hearts she has touched.

Mrs. Gaston's 81-year life journey was completed on Wednesday, July 20, 2022 when she peacefully answered her Master's call for eternal rest in the comfort of her home while surrounded by loved ones under the care of Compassus Hospice. Once gaining her heavenly wings, she was reunited with her husband, Mr. Harvey Gaston, father, Mr. W. C. Cook, son, Roger Gaston, grandchildren, Nicholas Carmichael, great-great grandson, Messiah Elijah Taylor, son-in-law, James Carmichael, and sister, Nellie Massingale.

Mrs. Gaston's loving memories will forever be remembered and cherished by her son, Gregory Taylor of Talladega, AL; her daughters, Shirley Carmichael of Anniston, AL, Teresa Carmichael and Connie (Wyatt) Embry, both of Lincoln, AL, Kathey Gaston of Alexander City, AL, and Barbara Gaston of Pell City, AL; loving mother, Mrs. Ada Young; sisters, Patricia Keith Bryant, Malinda Taylor; grandchildren, Eugena, Michael, Deadra, Tamiko, Rita, Adam, LaKisha, Jeremy, James, Jr., Latonya (Anthony), Tamisha, Tacorya, Jeremy (Kirbie), Cierra (Julian) Brandi, Warren, Tempest, and Cameron (Jessica); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Gaston will always be remembered for her love of others and her sweet spirit.
