

Judy Goodlett

April 23, 1953 - June 3, 2024

Judy Goodlett, a beloved mother and grandmother, was born on April 23, 1953, in Anniston, Alabama to the parentage of the late Alice Gamble and the late William P. Allen. She was educated in Anniston at the Calhoun County Training School and graduated in 1971. Judy was raised by her grandmother in a God-fearing home. She accepted Christ at an early age and united with Springhill Baptist Church in Bynum, Alabama. Along life's journey, Judy met and married the late Louis F. Goodlett. To this union, they were blessed with one son.

Judy was a loving and caring soul who never met a stranger. Her selfless nature led her to always lend a helping hand to those in need. Judy loved her grandchildren unconditionally, pouring her love and wisdom into them. She found peace and joy tending to her beautiful flower garden and caring for her precious fur babies.

Judy departed this walk of life on June 3, 2024, while in the care of Noland Hospital in Anniston. She was preceded in death by her parents, Alice Gamble and William P. Allen; her grandmother, Lucille C. Gamble; her brother, James Allen; her sisters, Johnnie Cowden and Joda Coleman; her aunt, Jo Helen Finley, and her uncle, Oscar Bonner.

Loving memories of Judy will forever be cherished by her son, Adrian Goodlett, Sr. of Anniston; her grandchildren, Adrian Goodlett, Jr. of Anniston, Alabama, Jasilyn Hughes of Birmingham, Alabama, Jarvis Leonard of Lincoln, Alabama, Adria Goodlett of Jacksonville, Alabama, Lakwon Flemming of Dalton Georgia, Kayla Goodlett of New Orleans, Louisiana, Ebony Goggins of New York, and Shardia Thomas of Anniston; her great-grandchildren, Quadrian Goodlett, Zyair Goodlett, and Amarri Goodlett all of Talladega, Alabama, and Jaiyana Hughes of Anniston; her sisters, Miranda Harris and Sara Allen, both of Anniston; her nephew, Paul Coleman, Jr. of Anniston; her aunt, Georgia Gamble of Anniston; her step daughters, Kimeia Warren of Oxford, Alabama and Lanita Warren of Anniston; her step-sons, Lavioris Steel of Albertville, Alabama and DeWayne Smith of Indiana; her sisters-in-law, Jacqueline Flenord, Rosiland Lindsey, and Linda Garrett, all of Anniston, Beverly Lane of Oklahoma, and Deborah Warren of Washington; her loving companion, Anthony Warren of Anniston, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Let us remember Judy as the vibrant, loving individual she was, cherishing the moments we shared with her and the profound impact she made on all of us.
