

Jy'Kavien Wright

September 18, 2007 - May 31, 2026

With heavy hearts and profound sadness, we mourn the untimely passing of Jy'Kavien Dynzail Wright, a beacon of light and love who graced our lives from September 18, 2007, until his earthly journey came to an unexpected end on May 31, 2026. Born to Rodrekus Wright and Alicia Truss in Talladega, Alabama, Jy'Kavien was a cherished son, a devoted friend, and a compassionate soul whose spirit will forever echo in our hearts.

From a young age, Jy'Kavien welcomed faith into his life, finding comfort and purpose as he embraced Christ at Champion Church under the nurturing guidance of Pastor Barbara Embry. A proud graduate of Talladega High School, he wore his cap and gown with dreams of a bright future—one that he had envisioned as he looked forward to pursuing a career as an HVAC technician and someday owning his own business.

Jy'Kavien's passion for basketball was evident as he proudly represented the Talladega High School Basketball Team, captivating spectators with his talent and dedication. His adventurous spirit found joy in the thrill of riding dirt bikes and four-wheelers, while his love for mechanics blossomed as he sharpened his skills working on cars. A true video gamer at heart, Jy'Kavien found joy in sharing countless hours with friends, wrapped in the harmonies of music while cruising in the new car he proudly received as a graduation gift.

Jy'Kavien leaves behind a legacy of love that will be eternally cherished by his devoted parents, Rodrekius Wright and Alicia Truss; his beloved sisters, Kaesyn Wright and Kruz Wright; his caring grandparents, Wendy (Anthony) Calhoun, Joseph (Vanessa) Buchanan, and Gwendolyn (Gregory) Lindsey; bonus brothers, Kendarius Hickman, R'Landis Jones, Roderick Jones, Jr., Jaquintez Garrett, and Corey Wallace, Jr.; and a multitude of aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. Though his time with us was far too brief, Jy'Kavien's spirit will soar on the wings of those he loved, forever watching over us and guiding us with his light. As we say our goodbyes, we will carry his spirit in our hearts, forever treasuring the tapestry of love woven with memories of laughter, kindness, and youthful dreams.

In this moment of profound loss, we reflect upon the love he gave and the joy he brought, celebrating a life that, though cut short, burned brightly in its vibrant journey. Rest in peace, dear Jy'Kavien, until we meet again.
