

Kaitlyn Massiah Weed

October 23, 2013 - July 25, 2024

Miss Kaitlyn Massiah Weed, affectionately known as Honey, danced her way into the world on October 23, 2013, into the arms of her loving mother, Dricillia Weed. Little did her mother know that this beautiful bubbly bundle of joy would be a light that would brighten the lives of everyone who was lucky enough to know her.

Kaitlyn attended Saks Elementary School where her classmates and teachers lovingly referred to her as Sunshine, a fitting nickname for her radiant spirit. She was very intelligent and excelled academically, earning the title of honor student. While attending Saks Elementary, Honey met an inspiring teacher, Ms. Krystal Fomby, that she admired and respected. Ms. Fomby motivated her to work toward her dreams of becoming a doctor and a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Honey was known for her outgoing and vivacious personality. She had a rare ability to light up a room just with her smile. From the moment she stepped into a room, you knew you were in for a treat. She would showcase her many dance moves or serenade you with a song, preferably the blues. Her zest for dancing was infectious, and baby, she loved to dance! She poured love into every dance move and every song lyric. Honey's sense of style was as vibrant and expressive as her personality. She had a love for fashion and always took pride in her appearance. She had an old soul and was never at a loss for words.

Honey absolutely adored her parents and her cat, Gucci. She was convinced that her mom knew everything there was to know about life.

On July 25, 2024, little Miss Kaitlyn took her final bow on this earthly stage and joined her grandmothers, Carol Brown and Carolyn Weed, great-grandmother, Carolyn Brown and great-great-grandmother, Lily Green.

Honey's memory will dance on in the hearts of her mother, Dricillia (Tonya Roberson) Weed; brothers, AyDenn Wilson, and Trevionne Roberson; sisters, Alecia Wilson, Keigan Roberson, and Ta'Joycelyn Roberson; grandfather, Steven Weed; aunts, Piarol (Michael) Brown, Dominique Trammell, and Zy'rha Pope; uncle, X'amien Pope; mother, Maurisha Wilson; loving aunt and uncle, Sabrina and Roderick Trammell; best friend, Karsyn Morris; her cousin she was awaiting to meet, A'mazieon Trammell, and a host of other family members and friends.

Throughout her short but impactful life, Kaitlyn was a ray of light to all who knew her. Let's celebrate her and keep dancing to the beat she left behind.

“ When I heard the news, I was initially shocked and in disbelief! Even though most of us will NEVER be comfortable with losing loved ones, we must understand that God is in control! I will always remember Kaitlyn’s warm embrace, continuous compliments, sparkling smile, never ending stops by my classroom, greetings in the hall way, and her utmost respect for me. There will definitely be a somber climate at the onset of school! I loved her & I believed she loved me! #thatDashInTheMiddle “ Kaitlyn had such a wonderful spirit. I got blessed to meet that beautiful smile that would light up the room, when I taught her for awhile at Faith Creativity Achievement. Then when I began to sub at Saks Elementary she would say there go my old Pre-K teacher and she would run and give me a hug. She made sure when she seen me that I was greeted by a hug. She was truly such a blessing. If you were sad, you wouldn't be, because that smile made everything alright. My sympathy to the family. You are in my prayers.

“ Honey was one of the most delightful students that I encountered daily as a teacher at Saks Elementary School! She always had a beautiful smile and twinkling eyes as she greeted each and every person that she passed going down the hall each morning! If she sensed that someone wasn't having a very good day, she would intentionally give an extra hug or a kind word of encouragement. My condolences to the family and know that prayers are being lifted for each of you.
