

Kathie Townsend

January 11, 1955 - May 20, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Kathie Gentry Townsend, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. On May 20, 2024, Kathie peacefully departed this world at her home in Talladega, AL, at the age of 69.

Kathie leaves behind a legacy of love and dedication, evident through her 41-year marriage to her devoted husband Bruce Townsend. She will forever be remembered by her two adoring daughters, JoAnn (Tommy) Green and Jessie (Jeremy) Townsend Curry, and her precious grandchildren Dylan Green, Casey King, Ka'Niah Curry, Jaycee Curry, and JJ Curry. Kathie's memory will also be cherished by her sisters, JoAnn McDonald, Brenda Bielema, Jean Kiker, her brother Ernest Gentry, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Preceded by her loving parents Clara Gentry and Harvey Gentry, as well as her older brother John Gentry, Kathie's life was filled with cherished memories and moments that will forever be treasured by those who knew her.

In celebration of Kathie's life, a memorial service is planned for a later date, allowing family and friends to come together and honor her memory in a compassionate and celebratory manner. This service will serve as a tribute to her kind spirit, unwavering love, and the profound impact she had on all who were fortunate enough to know her.

May Kathie's warm smile, gentle spirit, and enduring love remain eternally present in the hearts of all those she touched during her time on Earth.
