Ms. Kathryn Jackson Coleman was born on April 24, 1933 in Riverside, Alabama to the union of Archie Jackson and Janie Mae Freeze Jackson.

At a young age she united with Bloominglight Missionary Baptist Church. She was educated in the St. Clair County School System and was a graduate of St. Clair County Training School. She worked as a presser in the dry-cleaning industry for many years before retiring.

Ms. Coleman was a fun-loving person who loved to have a good time. She had a zest for life that was evident in her love for cooking, fishing, and dancing. She was known for her culinary skills, and her infectious laughter could brighten any room. Her signature "Duck Dance" and catchphrase "I Still Got It Baby" brought joy to all who knew her. She loved spending time with her family, especially her daughter, Janice, whom she loved unconditionally.

On Sunday evening, April 28, 2024, at the age of 91, Ms. Kathryn Jackson Coleman, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and aunt peacefully transitioned from her earthly home into the heavenly realm with her beloved daughter at her side while in the comfort of her home. She was welcomed home by her parents, Archie and Janie Jackson and brother, Walter Jackson.
