

Kenyale Turner

January 29, 2004 - June 8, 2025

Born on January 29, 2004, in Talladega, Alabama, to his loving parents, Shontorria Mauree McKinney and Kenneth Turner, Kenyale was a radiant spirit whose life was a tapestry woven with love, laughter, and boundless potential.

Kenyale was educated in the Calhoun County School System, culminating in his graduation from Wellborn High School. Excelling in both basketball and football, he was not only recognized for his athletic prowess but also for his remarkable work ethic and passion for the automotive industry. As an inspector at Stratosphere, he embraced his role with enthusiasm, reflecting his dedication to excellence in everything he pursued.

In the quiet moments of life, Kenyale found joy in playing his PS5 with friends, passionately cheering for his favorite college football teams - a spirited rivalry between Georgia and Florida that brought him great delight. Yet, the pinnacle of his joy was the time spent with his cherished family, the anchors of his life, whose love illuminated every corner of his being. Kenyale possessed a rare gift for making those around him feel special, a testament to his character that will be forever remembered.

On Sunday morning, June 8, 2025, Kenyale LaSean Turner peacefully transitioned to eternal rest surrounded by his beloved family at Citizen's BMC in Talladega. Though his life was heartbreakingly cut short, Kenyale's legacy of love and laughter will forever resonate in the lives of those he touched.

Kenyale's legacy of love and laughter, will continue to live on through his loving parents, Shontorria McKinney and Kenneth Turner; brother, Kenneth Turner; sister, Kanya Turner; grandparents, Gladys F. Marrisett, Tonya Turner, Kenneth Curry, and Maurice Kelly; great-grandparents, Rosie Curry and Vivian White; aunts, Khadijah Curry, Shakiyla Terry, and Kenndi Kelly; uncles, Khiry McKinney, Maurice Kelly, Jr., and Dominick Bennett; as well as a multitude of cousins and friends who will carry his spirit forward in their hearts.

Though he has left this earthly realm, Kenyale's spirit will remain a shining light in the hearts of all who were blessed to know him. May he rest in eternal peace, embraced by love and surrounded by the cherished memories of his beautiful journey.
