

Lewis Chapman, Jr

November 6, 1951 - May 27, 2022

Lewis Chapman, Jr. was born to the parentage of Lewis Chapman, Sr. and Dorothy Chapman in Talladega, Alabama on November 6, 1951.

Lewis accepted Christ at an early age and attended various churches throughout life. Lewis was educated in the Talladega City School System where he attended Westside High School. He later became a member of the union workers in Birmingham, Alabama and worked as a labor in the construction industry for many years.

Affectionately known to many in the community as "Flipper", Lewis could be found walking the streets of Talladega and through his community always carrying his Bible. He was a very loving and giving person who will be missed by his family, friends and community.

On Friday evening, May 27, 2022 God called Lewis from labor to rest while under the care of University Hospital in Birmingham, Alabama. Preceding him in death are his parents, Lewis Chapman, Sr. and Dorothy Chapman, other family members, Roger A. Chapman, Joe L. Whitson, Willie Lee Whitson and Willie B. Whitson.

His memories will remain in the hearts of his brother, Quinton Chapman; niece, Candace Sutton; nephews, Roderick Chapman and Tramayne

Chapman; sister-in-law, Alice Chapman; extended family, Walter Lee Whitson, Cecelia Whitson and Sara (Ceaser) Reyes; and a host of other relatives and friends.
