

Mary Duncan

June 2, 1952 - October 11, 2024

Mary Sullivan Duncan, a loving and supportive soul, graced this world with her presence on June 2, 1952, in Anniston, Alabama to the parentage of the late James and Mattie Jackson. She accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at an early age. Her unwavering faith led her to unite with the Friendship Missionary Baptist Church in Anniston where she remained a devoted and faithful member until her health declined.

Mary, affectionally known as "GeGe", received her education in the Anniston City School System and graduated from Cobb Avenue High School as a proud member of the Panther's Class of 1970. After high school, she chose to enter the workforce and eventually pursued a career at Anniston Sportswear where she worked for over 35 years. While working, Mary attended New World College and pursued a degree in Cosmetology. She served her community as a dedicated member of the Pilgrim Rest Eastern Star Chapter #372.

Along life's journey, Mary met the love of her life, Albert Duncan. In October of 1987, they were united in holy matrimony. Mary's passion for life was evident in her love for dancing, shopping, traveling, and watching game shows and dance competitions. She also cherished her connections with her classmates, forming lasting bonds that warmed her heart throughout her lifetime. Mary's zest for life was infectious. She was a giver and would help anybody. She was a fighter in every sense of the word, overcoming life's challenges with grace and determination.

On Friday, October 11, 2024, Mary answered the Master's call and danced her way through the pearly gates to be reunited with her husband, Albert Duncan, parents, James and Mattie Jackson, brother, Samuel Smith, and sisters, Jewell Glover and Barbara Ann Robinson.

Her loving memories will forever be cherished by her son, Antonio L. (Victoria) Sullivan; daughter, TaKeisha (Cory) Carter; stepchildren, Midal "Big Daddy" Duncan and Tiffany Duncan; grandchildren, Shaunee (Maurice) Whatley, Quendesa (Steven) Carson, Aneishava Carter, Quensheay Sullivan, Antonio Sullivan, Jr., Jacorey Lane Shanique Shears, Tydarius Duncan, Dontavious Kirby, Marcus Appling, and Xzavion Johnson; great-grandchildren, Jayla Whatley and Zion Whatley; brother, James Sullivan; sisters, Jean (John) Green, Annie Sullivan, and Terrie (Johnny) Teague; special nieces, Kearrah and Zuykeria Coco Glover; special cousin, Fannietta Dade; Godson, Jabari Cunningham; bonus sister, Marsha Ragland; special friends, Patrick Dennis, Reather Stevens, Christina Delaney, Sylvia Cross, and Annie Gail; in-laws, Margaret Duncan, Patricia (Curtis) Mitchell, Willie (Cynthia) Duncan, Jacquelyn (Gregory) McClellan, Michael Duncan, Wanda Duncan, David Briskey, Darlene Briskey, Gary Duncan, and Sylvester (Verner) Hutchinson; and other family members and friends.

Though Mary may no longer dance among us, her spirit will forever echo through the hearts of those she touched, reminding us to live joyfully and embrace each moment with love.

Let us come together to celebrate the life of Mary Duncan and cherish the memories we shared with her. May she rest in eternal peace, dancing among the angels.
