

Miracle Daviona Turner

March 11, 2024 - April 26, 2025

Miracle Daviona Turner entered this world on March 11, 2024, bringing immense joy and laughter to her family and everyone she encountered, with her infectious giggles and lively spirit. Born to David Turner and Quandra Willingham in Birmingham, Alabama, Miracle was adored by all who knew her. Miracle's name serves as a sign and evidence of God's power and purpose. She was a fighter when she first entered this earthly realm and a true fighter who faced life's challenges with grace until her entrance into the heavenly realm. She lived with a strong courageous heart, inspiring all who knew her to embody the same strength and determination.

Her time with us was momentary, but the "411" days of memories she leaves behind will be cherished forever. Throughout her short but meaningful life, Miracle found joy in watching her favorite Minnie Mouse show while racing around in her walker, a picture of exhilaration and innocence. Her favorite dish, mashed potatoes and treat, cheese puffs, always brought a smile to her face long with her bottle of water to quench her thirst. She had just begun to understand the game of Peek-a-Boo and Patty Cake while joyously interacting with her brothers. Miracle loved being placed in her car seat joy riding and just simply being outside.

Though Miracle's time on Earth was short, her spirit embodied love and innocence, uniting all those around her. Her laughter and bright smile will forever be cherished by those who had the privilege of knowing her. On the evening of April 26, 2025 the heavens welcomed Miracle Daviona Turner back, and she serenely returned to the angels who had shared her with us for a brief time. While Miracle's time with us was concise, her impact on our lives cannot be overstated, and may her memory serve as a reminder of the priceless nature of each life, no matter how brief.

Miracle leaves behind a loving family to forever cherish her memories including her loving and devoted parents, David Turner and Quandra Willingham; brothers, Kyrie McRath and Davion Turner; grandparents; Coraletha (David) Perkins, Xernona Fennie, and Blake White; aunt, Tarrissa Turner; uncles, Jerrod Turner, Zeb Lunsford, and Quendall Turner; and a multitude of great-aunts and uncles, cousins, and other relatives.

In celebration of her beautiful life and the joy she brought to all, we will now reflect on the cherished memories and the love that God allowed Miracle to share with everyone she met. Through our grief, we find comfort in knowing that Miracle is now at peace in the arms of the angels, forever watching over us with her bright smile and infectious laughter. Her innocent presence filled our hearts with love and joy.

Rest in peace, Miracle Daviona Turner. Your memory will forever live on in our hearts.
