

Natavious Brown

January 21, 2000 - April 7, 2025

Natavious Brown began his earthly journey on January 21, 2000, to the parentage of the Monique Brown Miller and Nathan Garrett, Jr. in Talladega, Alabama.

From an early age, Natavious accepted Christ as his Savior while attending Kindom Life Ministries, nurturing a faith that would guide him throughout his life. He grew up in Talladega, Alabama, where he received his education from the Talladega City School System and graduated from Talladega High School in 2018. Natavious dedicated himself to hard work in the manufacturing industry, most recently serving as a machine operator at Ameri Bolt. However, it was his vibrant passion for music and rap, alongside his love for racing cars, that truly defined him. He loved fast cars including his Dodge Charger and Dodge Challenger. He touched so many lives with his bright infectious smile and charming personality, especially his niece and nephews whom he loved unconditionally.

Natavious had a special bond with his family, marked by love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. His warm smile and infectious personality could brighten the darkest days. With a special fondness for his niece and nephews, he embraced every moment spent with them, whether through vacationing, joyful family gatherings, entertaining videos, or simply sharing his favorite Kool-Aid and a playful, but sincere request for spare change ($3) with his mother, Monique Miller. He also held a special place in his heart for his bonus father, Charles, whose constant unwavering support and affection were a source of joy and laughter throughout Natavious's life. Their bond was one filled with love and cherished memories, underscoring the importance of family and friendship. Natavious meant everything to his family and his family meant everything to him. He will truly be missed by all the lives he has touched, but his infectious smile, heart of gold, and music will live on in the hearts he has touched.

As time winds its course, we look ahead to a future where, Natavious's spirit transcends this earthly realm, as he embarks on his journey towards eternal peace. On the morning of Monday, April 7, 2025, as a result of a senseless act of violence, Natavious Brown received his wings while in the care of Citizen's Baptist Medical Center with his beloved family at his side. Waiting for his entrance in the heavenly realm with outstretched arms was his loving grandmother, Nell Brown.

Natavious leaves behind all his love and precious memories to forever be cherished by his loving and devoted mother, Monique (Charles) Miller; his father, Nathan Garrett, Jr.; brothers, Xzavion (Arden) Brown, Syncere Brown, Joshua Gurley, and Cadarius Harvey; sister, Macie Wilson; grandparents, Mary Brown, Barbara Carter, and Cecelia Morris; aunts, Katrina Carter, Keasel Carter, and Reba (Orlando) Hale; uncles, Charles Brown and Michael Brown; niece, Bliss Brown; nephews, Zakylin Brown, Legend Brown, and Kingsley Brown; fiancée, Nazara Welch; best friends, Shelton Simmons, Rashad Williams, and Cameron Cole; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

As we gather to celebrate Natavious's life, let us remember him not with sorrow, but with gratitude for the moments we shared, the laughter we experienced, and the love that will forever connect us. May his soul rest in peace.
