

Nattie Swain

May 29, 1951 - November 6, 2023

Born on May 29, 1951, in Talladega, Alabama, Nattie Ree "Sister" Swain was the only cherished daughter of the late Mr. William Frank Keith and Majorie Marie Morris Keith.

She was a woman of unwavering faith and found solace in her devotion to the Lord. Nattie was an active and dedicated member of Kingston Missionary Baptist Church, where she faithfully served on the kitchen committee, spreading warmth and love through her cooking and hospitality. She received her formal education in the Talladega County School System and after completing her education at R.R. Moton High School, Nattie began her professional journey at Wehadkee Yarn Mills, where she worked as a skilled spinner for over three decades. Her dedication and hard work were an inspiration to all those around her. Upon her retirement, Nattie delighted in spending precious time with her family, especially her beloved grandchildren.

Nattie's talents extended beyond the workplace, as she found joy in cooking, baking, and creating beautiful floral arrangements. Her green thumb was evident in her carefully tended garden, where she spent countless hours cultivating her flowers with love and care. Those who knew Nattie will always remember her warm smile, infectious laughter, and unwavering love for her children.

Affectionately known as "Sister" by her family and friends, Nattie Ree was well-known and loved in her community by all who knew her and left a lasting impression with all the lives she encountered and touch.

In her 55 years of marital bond, Nattie shared a deep and unbreakable bond with her loving husband, Mr. Savannah Swain. Together, they built a loving and nurturing home for their five children. She loved her children unconditionally and when it came to them, there were no filters. She said what she meant and meant exactly what she said.

On November 6, 2023, Mrs. Nattie Ree "Sister" Swain, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and sister, gentle soul departed this world to join her heavenly Father while surrounded by the love of her family and friends at Brookwood Citizen's Baptist Medical Center. Once receiving her Master's call, she was reunited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William and Marjorie Keith, her son, Savannah "Buster" Swain Jr., her brothers Nathan Keith and William Frank Keith, and her bonus brother and sister, Henry "Spoon" Sillmon and Aretha Sillmon

Nattie's memory will forever be treasured by her beloved husband, Mr. Savannah Swain, Sr.; three loving daughters, Margie Grace, Hattie Lee Swain (Hall), and Malissa Ann Swain, all of Alpine, Alabama; caring son, Phillip Demetrius (Stephanie) Swain; eight cherished grandchildren, Kabrillyah Swain, Ayanna Swain, Skiyah Swain, Lytavis Green, Draylon Green all of Lincoln, Alabama, Quinterrius Grace of Hoover, Alabama, LaBreyton Lemond Hall of Alpine, Alabama, and Tyus D. Swain of Homewood, Alabama; adorable two great-grandchildren, Kyh Leah Ivey Grace of Hoover, Alabama and Nylah King of Lincoln, Alabama; brothers, Frank (Annie) Morris, Freddie (Clarice) Keith, and Ben (Ninivah) Keith all of Alpine, Alabama; her aunt, Vista Keith Taylor of Buffalo, New York. Her passing leaves a profound void in the lives of her best friends, Gate (Matthew) Parker of Detroit, Michigan, Fannie

Mae "Bo" Twymon and Peggy Swain Ward both of Talladega, Alabama, who will miss her cherished companionship dearly.

During this difficult time, may we all find comfort in the memories we shared with Nattie and the knowledge that she has found eternal peace in the loving arms of her Savior. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations to be made to the Kingston Baptist Church in Nattie's memory.

Nattie Ree "Sister" Swain will forever remain in our hearts, and her legacy of love, kindness, and unwavering faith will continue to inspire us all. May her soul rest in eternal peace.
