

Norris D Askew

January 7, 1963 - November 29, 2024

Mr. Norris D. Askew, a loving family man, was born in Anniston, Alabama on January 7, 1963, to James Askew, Jr. and Edith Harris Askew.

Norris accepted Christ at an early age while attending his home church, Mars Hill Missionary Baptist Church. He received his education in the Anniston City School System where he attended Anniston High School. After leaving high school, Norris received career skills and training by joining Job Corps.

Norris grew up in Anniston and later relocated and made Gulf Port, Mississippi his home. He spent many years in an established a career at Memorial Hospital until his retirement in 2008. Retirement allowed him to give more attention to his lawn care service and he took pride in beautifying the yards of his customers.

A devoted sports fan, Norris cheered passionately for the New Orleans Saints and enjoyed watching football and NASCAR. He had a passion for staying informed, frequently tuning in to the news to stay updated on the world around him. In 2023, Norris returned to Anniston to be closer to family during a difficult time in his health. He was met with open arms by his sister, Veronica Askew, who stood by him as a pillar of support.

On Friday, November 29, 2024, at the age of 61, Norris D. Askew transitioned from this life and entered eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his son, Norris D. Mueller, parents, James Askew, Jr. and Edith Askew, and sisters, Linda Askew and Sandra Askew.

Norris Askew's memory will forever be cherished by his grandchildren, Aaniah Mueller, Aalinah Mueller, Mia Mueller, and Demetrius Mueller; sister, Veronica Ann Askew; brothers, James Askew, III and Reco Askew; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

As we gather to honor Norris, let us share in the memories, remembering the warm-hearted man he was and all the joy he brought into our lives.
