

Pierre Whitson

February 28, 1987 - June 21, 2024

Born on February 28, 1987, in Talladega, Alabama to the parentage of Doris Whitson and Selester Debardelabon, Pierre's warm presence and gentle spirit touched the lives of all who crossed his path. Despite facing life's challenges, he showed a strong joy and found comfort in the simple pleasures of spending time with his beloved family and friends.

As a Talladega High School graduate and a former employee of Walmart, Pierre's tough spirit led him to pursue personal growth at the Center of Hope. His pursuit of happiness and self-improvement inspired many in the community and endeared him to all who knew him.

Tragically, on June 21, 2024, Pierre Tremayne Whitson's journey on this earth was cut short due to a senseless accident caused by a hit-and-run driver. The loss of such a kind and gentle soul has left a deep void in the hearts of his loved ones and the community at large.

Pierre leaves to cherish his memories a loving and devoted mother, Doris Whitson; his father, Selester Debardelabon; three sisters, Deleshia Jemison, Alicia Whitson, and Teresse Truss; six brothers, Caleb Whitson, Bernard Shears, Selester Dante Funderburg, Selester Adair, Jaylin Burt, and Kelvin Jemison; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

In remembrance of Pierre Tremayne Whitson, we honor his legacy and the light he brought into the world will be a testament to his enduring spirit and the love he shared with those around him.

May we join together in mourning the loss of Pierre, celebrating his life, and finding solace in the cherished memories he leaves behind. Though he may no longer walk among us, his spirit will continue to shine brightly in our hearts forever.
