

Princena Street

July 19, 1955 - March 17, 2026

Born on July 19, 1955, in Lineville, Alabama, Princena Hardy Street was the beloved daughter of James Hardy and Katherine Burney Hardy. Her beautiful spirit has touched all who knew her.

From an early age, Princena embraced her faith, accepting Christ while attending Springhill Baptist Church. Her steadfast commitment to her beliefs was a guiding light throughout her life, inspiring those around her to cherish their own paths. Princena was a proud graduate of Lineville High School, and her journey led her to a cherished role as a Line Waitress at Rusell Mills, where she dedicated many years of her life before retiring. Her diligent work ethic and warm smile were hallmarks of her time there, endearing her to colleagues and patrons alike.

In the tapestry of her life, Princena wove vibrant threads of love and joy, particularly in her marriage to her beloved husband, Frankie Street. Together, they nurtured two beautiful children, who stand as a testament to their enduring love. As a wife and mother, she poured her heart into her family, filling their lives with laughter, warmth, and unforgettable memories.

Princena had an undeniable passion for the simple pleasures of life; she cherished long walks, the thrill of shopping, and the beauty of planting flowers, often tending to her garden with the same care and dedication she bestowed upon her family. In each blossom and in every shared moment, she found joy and comfort, leaving behind a legacy of love and resilience.

With sorrow and heartfelt reflection, we mourn the loss of our beloved Princena H. Street who departed this life on March 17, 2026, in Anniston, Alabama, at the age of 70. As she entered the heavenly realm, she was reunited with her parents, James and Katherine Hardy, brothers, Tyrone Hardy and James L. Hardy, and sisters, Clara A. Cray and Rebecca H. Allen.

Princena leaves behind a legacy of love and memories to forever be cherished by her loving husband, Frankie G. Street; daughter, April (Ozie) Vincent; son Franklin (Shellon) Street; grandchildren, Jaylan Street, X'zavier Dobbins, Ashanti Vincent, Davontae Birdsong, Aaliyah Allen, and Tarik Allen; sister, Hope Jackson; brothers, Theron Shepard, Mark Shepard, and Gary (Shelia) Hardy; special daughters, LaTonya Norman and Syreeta McKinney; her sweet baby girl, Heaven Westbrook; special cousin, Dianne Ballard; and a multitude of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

In honoring Princena, we will remember her not only with sadness but with joy for the gift of her life. As we gather to bid farewell, let us celebrate the vibrant soul who walked among us, the laughter that filled our hearts, and the love that will forever endure.

Princena H. Street will be deeply missed, yet her spirit will forever shine brightly in our hearts. May she rest in peace.
