

Priscilla Curry

March 20, 1946 - October 18, 2022

Ms. Priscilla Williams Curry, 76, was born March 20, 1946 to the Johnnie L. Williams and Mollie Mae Smith Williams in Talladega, Alabama.

Priscilla accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior at a young age and united with Lane Chapel C.M.E. Church. She received her formal education in the Talladega County School System and later attended Gadsden College. She worked various jobs as a manager including, Crown Textile, Wehadkee Yarn Mills, Bargain Town, and later retired from Masterbrand.

She loved her children and family. Priscilla found peace and relaxation in traveling with her children. She enjoyed calmly sitting on the beach watching the ocean tides and waves. She would always have her world search puzzle book right at her fingertips whether on the beach or just relaxing at home.

On Tuesday, October 18, 2022 while resting peacefully in the comfort of her home, Priscilla's life journey ended as she transitioned from her earthly home to her eternal resting place. Once receiving her heavenly wings, she was reunited with her parents Johnnie and Mollie Williams.

Priscilla will remain in loving memories by her two daughters, Kristy (Todd) Curry Rowland and Tameshia (Dion) Jenkins Embry; one son, Melvin (Nicole) Curry; two brothers, Johnny (LumJuan) Williams and Calvin (Linda) Williams;

one sister, Jackie Williams Hall; and a host of grandchildren, nephews, nieces, other relatives, and friends.
