

Raymond Singleton

August 1, 1957 - April 1, 2025

Raymond Singleton, Jr. was born on August 1, 1957, to proud parents Lorene and Raymond Singleton. From the moment he arrived, his family was in love with their baby boy.

Raymond was educated in the public schools of Savannah, Georgia, and Brooklyn, New York. A true artist at heart, Raymond was a creative and funny man who loved life. He had a gift for making people laugh and brought joy to those around him through his humor and adventurous spirit.

He was a passionate traveler and approached everything he did with intensity and enthusiasm. Raymond loved children and enjoyed singing-he was full of life and imagination. Above all, he deeply loved his family and was proudly a mama's boy.

Raymond worked many jobs throughout his life, but his favorite was working with ambulance services, where he provided care and support to everyday people.

His

compassion was genuine and appreciated by all who knew him. Friendly, imaginative,

and full of heart, Raymond left a lasting impression on everyone he met.

He is survived by his beloved sweetheart, Cynthia Birchfield, and his first wife,

Shelia

Terry Singleton. He also leaves behind a host of children: Damien Debiine

Singleton,

Lamora Terry Singleton, Sati Singleton, Jason Singleton, Joseph, Dwight, and Clinton.

Raymond was the proud grandfather of 11 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

He is also survived by his eldest sister, Dr. Mildred McClain of Savannah,

Georgia;

Patricia Singleton of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; and Clifford Singleton of

Boston,

Massachusetts.

Raymond's memory will be cherished by his nieces Azania Heyward James and Stephanie

Robinson Cooper; nephews Clifford Singleton, Jr. and William McClain;

grandnieces

Anjani Heyward-James and Asha Heyward-James; grandnephew Justin

Robinson

Cooper; and a host of aunts, cousins, and friends.

We will always carry the memory of Raymond Singleton, Jr.-the baby of the family-in our hearts.
