

Rickey Eugene Threatt

June 25, 1963 - June 14, 2024

Mr. Rickey Eugene Threatt was born on June 25, 1963 in Pell City, Alabama. He was the son of Mr. Samuel Threatt and Mrs. Lucille Shepard Threatt and Mr. Alex Threatt, Sr.

Rickey accepted Christ while attending Apostolic Tabernacle. He was educated in the St. Clair County School System and attended Pell City High School.

While traveling through this journey called life, Rickey met his wife, former Ms. Sharon Knight and together they shared many years of love.

Rickey was known as a man full of charisma and charm. Many would refer to him as "Pappa Was a Rolling Stone". If you knew Rickey, you knew he was an avid outdoorsman who loved tinkering with things. He could fix just about anything, which gave him the name "Mr. Fix It". He was a well-known big trash talker with a heart of gold. He never met a stranger, and he was definitely "ONE TO KNOW". Entertaining is the full description of who Rickey was. In his spare time during football season, he was not going to let you disturb him and the Auburn Tigers football game!! He was a true Auburn fan...

Rickey Eugene Threatt transitioned from this life of labor to a peaceful rest on while in the comfort of his home on June 14, 2024. He is preceded in death by his parents, Samuel and Lucille Threatt and Alex Threatt, Sr., son, Patrick Swain, and brother, Randy Threatt.

He leaves his loving memories to be forever cherished by his loving and devoted wife Sharon Threatt; four sons, Antonio Swain, Andre McGowan, Reginald Carmichael, and Evan Carmichael; one daughter, FiFi (Kadrin Robinson) Bush; five brothers, Alex Threatt, J. Willie Gordon, Zedeebe Threatt, Ray Threatt, and Walter Threatt; five sisters, Norma Threatt, Renda Threatt, Lorene Winston, Peggy Winston, and Velvet Davis; aunt, Sarah (George) Forman; special friend, Enjoli Estelle; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“ Ricky had a heart of gold. He was a true friend. He was there for me when my husband passed He just set and listen let me get it all out we laugh, and we cried. He sure will be missed. Talk to him two days before he passed.. didn't know that was our last. Will always remember you my friend. Fly high.
